Castro Valley's Calvin Gaziano crosses the finish line first.

were second to Miramonte by four points.

"We knew going into it (the NCS meet) that four or five teams were right there," said Wilder. "Our kids just had an outstanding day.

"This is just incredible," continued the surprisingly calm coach. "This is the first big championship Moreau has ever won (in cross country.) It really hasn't sunk in yet."

Last year, Moreau made it to the Meet of Champions for the first time.

In the girls race, Rivers firmly established herself as one of the favorites in next week's girls race with her come-from-behind victory. Stepping gingerly as she sloshed through the mushy grass where the race started, Rivers was mired in back of the pack of 100 runners by the time the throng reached the pavement about one-quarter of a mile into the race.

"I was almost last," she said. "I was slipping a lot. I thought I was going to fall. I was a little bit worried."

But, once she reached firm ground, Rivers began her resolute assault on the leaders, turning a 5:40 first mile that promptly put her within striking distance of the frontrunners.

Maintaining that pace, she assumed the lead shortly thereafter. She passed the two-mile mark in 11:26 and cruised to a 13-second victory that she has been pining for almost since the moment she finished second in last year's Meet of Champions.

"This is what I wanted to do," Rivers said in between smiles after the race. "I've been waiting for this all season."

Michelle Kelsey 19th and Amy Falk 25th.

For San Ramon, Kelly Sobey backed up Carter and Goodykoontz by taking 15th in 21:25.23.

Foothill got a superb performance from freshman Shana Seifert to grab the final team qualifying spot. Seifert took ninth place overall in 20:52.97. Monika Tozier was the Falcons' second-place finisher, taking a 22nd in 21:56.17.

On a day where most EBAL runners got what they expected, Livermore's Pam Wasley suffered the heartbreak of taking 13th overall, one spot away from qualifing for the Meet of Champions.

reau's Scott Machado was third at 14:30 and Castro Valley's John Bass took fourth with a time of 14:35.

Casillas and the rest of the Trojans were satisfied with third place, only because it qualified them for the Meet of Champions. "We've been pointing to the Meet of Champions all year long," said Casillas.

Casillas' runners echoed his sentiments. "It's what we've wanted all year long," said Doug Amaro, who ran a 16:14. "We know we've got the best two runners (Gaziano and Bass), but we're all together."

"We've learned this year that it's a team effort in cross country," said the Trojans'Mike Doyle, who placed 13th.

In the girls' team totals, Moreau finished fifth while Castro Valley took sixth overall.

Bishop O'Dowd's Jana Jarosz qualified for next week's meet as she took seventh place with a 18:27.

Rivera covered the three miles in 16:25.92, using superior speed to hold off Livermore's steady Mike Goralka.

Newark's second-place finish advances the Cougars into next Saturday's NCS Meet of Champions at Lafayette Reservoir.

In the girls race, highlights for the MVAL were the individual performance of Newark's Gina Jauregui, who took third, and of the Mission team, which qualified for the Meet of Champions with a fifth-place, 150-point finish.

Sandy Lyle, of Scotland, shot a 2-under-par 69 to grab the lead at 12 under par after the third round of the $450,000 Kapalua (Hawaii) International Championship of Golf.
