

Cap harriers win twice 9-26-85

SAN BRUNO — Led by the 1-2 finish of Matt Gough and Albert Carvana, Capuchino High's varsity cross-country team nearly pulled off a sweep against visiting Lincoln and Riordan, both of San Francisco, in non-league action Wednesday.

Gough captured the 2.75-mile event with a time of 15:36; Carvana was second at 15:44, barely beating Lincoln's Hao Trach (15:44) and Cap's Bryan Wolf (15:45).

After Wolf, Capuchino runners placed fifth through seventh. Capuchino scored 18 points to rout Riordan (55) and Lincoln (67) in the team competition.

In the girls' race, Notre Dame pulled out the tri-team event with 22 points; Capuchino had 47. However, Capuchino's Dorothy Anderson turned in the top performance, a 18:08 run in the 2.75-mile run. That topped her previous best at the Capuchino course by 49 seconds.

The second-place runner was Notre Dame's Nancy Kelly, who wound up at 19:33. Notre Dame athletes Tanya Seamans, Monica Nelson and Amy Santucci placed from third to fifth, respectively.
