

Ram harriers place fifth

PEBBLE BEACH — Patty Pender and Allison Torres finished in sixth place and 15th place, respectively, as Westmoor High's girls' varsity cross country team took fifth overall at the Robert Louis Stevenson Invitational Saturday.

Pender ran a 22:17 over the three-mile course, while Torres finished in 23:14. Westmoor scored 100 points, while team titlist Clovis of Fresno scored 43.

Tony Restivo was the highest Ram finisher in the boys' varsity race, completing the course in 17:24. Brother Danny Restivo wound up in 20th place at 18:14. The Ram squad placed sixth.

Westmoor's John Ferreira captured first in the boys' JV race with a time of 19:24. Steve Silici took eighth at 20:12.

In the boys' frosh-soph event, Jose Solano claimed second in 18:34 as the Rams' team placed ninth.