Thomas leads St. Francis to cross-country final

By Wayne Washington
Mercury News Staff Writer

Different circumstances call for different measures, and Tyson Thomas of St. Francis wanted to make sure he could go with the flow.

At the Central Coast Section Division III cross-country qualifying meet Wednesday at Crystal Springs in Belmont, Tyson tried a new strategy. The result was a victory in one of the two boys' heats, which helped his team qualify for the CCS final next Wednesday.

"Usually, I just try to stay with the pack for as long as I can," said Thomas, who finished the 2.96-mile course in 15 minutes, 51 seconds, good enough for first place in Heat 1. "Then, I try to gradually pull away."

This time, with a field much larger than at a dual meet, Thomas figured a change was needed.

"I wanted to get out there," he said, "because I didn't want to get caught up in the pack."

Thomas' front-running, beat-winning performance highlighted a strong day for St. Francis, whose girls' team finished first in the girls' first heat and whose boys were second in the boys' first heat.

beginning of the year." He said, "Then, we started coming together. We first started noticing that when we lost to Bellarmine (ranked second in Division I) by only three points."

The St. Francis girls, ranked ninth, didn't have a finisher in the top four, but Michelle Ruiz led a balanced team effort, placing fifth in her heat with a time of 19:37. Defending CCS 3,000-meter champion Kate Sweeney of Leigh posted the fastest girls' time of the day, 19:24, to win the heat. In the boys' second heat, Al Kamp of San Lorenzo Valley led the fastest time of the day at 15:30. Kamp, ranked fourth in the area followed by top-ranked St. Ignace, who ranked at 19:44. McMannus and McLean won Heat 2. Palo Alto's boys girls won their heats.

The top seven boys' and girls' teams in each of the two heats qualified for the CCS finals. Each heat's top four runners on non-qualifying teams qualified as individuals, as did the four runners with the fastest times among those remaining.

St. Francis, ranked No. 6 in the CCS and considered along with third-ranked Palo Alto and top-ranked St. Ignace to be a top contender for the title in Division III, won three of the first four spots of its boys' heat.

Thomas' teammate, Will Clark, finished second with a time of 15:46. Robert Spencer of Soquel broke up the St. Francis string by finishing third at 16:08. Jason Yingling of St. Francis was fourth at 16:12.

Thomas said he and his teammates are running well at the right time of year.
