Cross country

St. Ignatius won its second West Catholic Athletic League meet, but the Wildcats were challenged by Bellarmine and St. Francis.

SI had with 40 points, edging the Bells (44) and Lancers (49).

Bellarmine's Kyle Dando took individual honors, outkicking St. Ignatius runners Brad Glosser and Mark McManus and teammate Pat Kelly at the finish. Dando finished the 2.94-mile course in 14:26, but Glosser and McManus were both within three seconds.

St. Francis, which traveled to the wrong site for the first meet, managed to find Golden Gate Park and placed four runners in the top 10.
