

10th Annual Castro Valley Invitational

Canyon Middle School, Castro Valley Saturday, October 12, 2002 Sunny and warm

College Park dominated the competition at the 10th Annual Castro Valley Invitational, easily winning both varsity races. They even came away with a runaway victory in the girls' frosh-soph race as well.

Lindsay Allen was a wire-to-wire winner in the girls' race, stretching out the field over the third mile to beat teammate Erica Holland by over a minute. Allen's time of 18:47 over the tough Canyon Middle School race was the 4th best ever on this course, only behind Kristen Gorden (Carondelet), Sara Beir (Montgomery) and Trina Cox (Santa Rosa) on the all-time list. Castro Valley, behind Kelley Stewart, took second over Tokay of Lodi.

College Park's Mitchell Steves surged past Miramonte's Joel Busheck at the end to take individual honors in the boys' race. The Falcons bunched together their scoring 5 in the top 25 to take the team win. Host team Castro Valley, behind the frontrunning of JohnYano, narrowly took second over Santa Rosa.
