FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIP MEETING, MAY 25-26, 1928

THE 52nd Annual Track and Field Championship Meeting was held at Soldiers Field, Cambridge, on May 25th and 26th, 1928. The meet which gave promise of the breaking of numerous records was greatly marred by the heavy and continuous downpour of rain of Saturday which was most discouraging to competitors, spectators and officials. After a week of rain, Friday proved a clear, warm and sunny day and the records which were broken were the result of the competition in the field events of Friday. The times made by the track men Saturday were most creditable considering the muddy and soft track covered with a sheet of water and the steady cold rain and wind.

The championship was won for the second time in succession by Stanford with a total of 43 points. Yale was second with 25 1-3 and Penn State third with 16. Syracuse was fourth with 15 points. Yale and Penn State just reversed their positions of last year.

Three field event records were broken on Friday. The meet had scarcely opened when Eric C. W. Krenz of Stanford broke the record in the shot put with a put of 50 feet 1 inch, displacing the record made by Clarence L. Houser of 49 feet 11 3-4 inches made in 1926. Later in the afternoon Krenz added his second record with a discus throw of 154 feet 11 inches, displacing Houser's second record of 151 feet 3 3-8 inches, also made in the 1926 meet. The third record which was broken was the broad jump mark of 24 feet 8 1-2 inches held by Alfred H. Bates and made last year. This year Bates improved his record to 24 feet 10 3-8 inches.

The weather on Saturday also precluded the taking of satisfactory pictures and the effect on the financial return was naturally very great.

100-YARD DASH

The 100-yard dash was won by James F. Quinn of Holy Cross in 9.9 seconds which was under the conditions of the weather and track an excellent performance. In perhaps no other race of the Championships has such a combination of disasters occurred to the competitors as in this race. Charles E. Borah of Southern California, the defending champion who won his heat, had had a cramped muscle early in the season. Weldon Draper, his teammate, who had been forcing him to the tape in previous races, pulled up after his heat in a lame condition. Both of these men were withdrawn before the semi-finals to save them from possible injury for the Olympic Games. Arthur French of Harvard who also won his heat and who had done 9 4-5 seconds earlier in the season suffered a pulled tendon. Folwell Scull of Pennsylvania and Carl Wildermuth of Georgetown each of whom were second in their heats also suffered injuries during their races. At the 50-yard mark it was a close race between Quinn and John G. Harwood of Syracuse but from then on Quinn forged ahead to win by about 2 yards. James S. Daley also of Holy Cross was scarcely a foot behind. Sidney B. Kieselhorst of Yale and Geoffrey Glendinning of Dartmouth followed at intervals of a foot. With the exception of the winner the race was an exceedingly close one.

Borah of Southern California and Arthur E. French of Harvard, both of whom had won their heats. Edward B. Rockwell of Princeton after a very fast start was leading by 5 or 6 yards half-way through. Slowly Barbuti with powerful, determined strides caught up with him and passed him practically on the tape to win by about 2 feet. Lyle D. Filkins of Penn State 3 yards behind fought out a neck and neck finish with Henry L. Henson of Michigan State and Richard G. Kent of Colby. The three finished in the order named a foot apart.

440-YARD DASH

Raymond J. Barbuti of Syracuse scored his first championship in this race by winning in 48.8 seconds, a creditable performance in view of the muddy track and cold rain, over Emerson L. Spencer of California who had come to the meet as a pronounced favorite having broken the world's record for the 400 meter and won a number of very fast quarters previous to the meet. Coming down the straightaway to the first turn the pack was well bunched. At the beginning of the last turn Barbuti was in third place with Lancelot P. Ross of Yale and Emerson Spencer leading. Spencer and Ross widened out on the track and Barbuti came through on the pole with a tremendous rush and 75 yards from the finish passed the two leaders. Spencer responded with a gallant attempt but was unable to hold the terrific sprint. Barbuti came through with 4 feet to spare over Spencer with Ross 5 yards behind. Gerard Swope of Dartmouth picked up several places by a good sprint and finished 7 yards behind Barbuti and 1 yard ahead of Norman E. St. Clair of Syracuse who was fifth.

880-YARD RUN

Philip Edwards of New York University the pronounced favorite in the race came through in decisive fashion leading from the start. In the middle of the first lap Gerald A. Gorman of Georgetown challenged the leader and later on George K. Offenhauser of Penn State attempted the same feat only to be easily shaken off. At the beginning of the straightaway Edwards opened up with a splendid sprint and won easily with 7 yards over Offenhauser. Gorman who was third was 2 yards behind. Frederick Veit a teammate of Edwards was fourth 14 yards behind with Norman K. Saxer of Pennsylvania in fifth position a yard behind Veit. The time of 1 minute 56.8 seconds was an astonishing feat through the mud.

ONE-MILE RUN

Probably the most exciting race of the day was the One-Mile. After the thrilling finish of the Indoor Championship Mile where William J. Cox of Penn State, defending champion in both the Indoor and Outdoor Meets, beat Ralph G. Luttman of Harvard by about a foot it was expected that these two would furnish a thrilling race. Cox took the lead at the start. In the first 220 he was challenged by Charles Sansone of Colby. After shifting several times Sansone led at the quarter in 1 minute 9.4 seconds. Cox was ahead at the half in 2 minutes 7.6 seconds. Henry Wylie of Michigan State attempted to pass Cox who fought him off. Ralph G. Luttman of Harvard who was thirteenth at the end of the hundred, tenth at the end of the half and seventh at the three-quarters, started a long and terrific sprint moving rapidly up until at the beginning of the home stretch he was second. Forty yards from the tape he caught Cox and slowly drew away from him winning by about 5 yards. Henry Wylie was third 20 yards back with his teammate Meredith G. Clark 10 yards behind. Harry T. Carter of California who had greatly improved his position on the last lap was fifth 5 yards behind Clark. Luttman running his own pace ran a well-judged race. The time of 4 minutes 25.4 seconds was equal to much better on a good track.

Won by Ralph G. Luttman, Harvard, '29.
Second, William J. Cox, Penn State, '29, by 5 yds.
Third, Henry E. Wylie, Michigan State, '28, by 20 yds.
Fourth, Meredith G. Clark, Michigan State, '29, by 30 yds.
Fifth, Harry T. Carter, California, '29, by 35 yds.
Sixth, Ned Cherry, California, '28, by 50 yds.

TWO-MILE RUN

The Two-Mile Run furnished a good race. At one time or another all of the point-winners took the lead as well as Irving Totten of Union, Andre Cushing of Maine and Henry Coe of Stanford. A half-mile from the finish the eleven runners were within 10 yards of each other in the front group. At the beginning of the last quarter Benson moved out only to be passed in the middle of the back stretch by James L. Reid of Harvard who was third last year. From there on Reid was never headed and won by about 6 yards. Joseph Hagen of Columbia, Indoor champion, finished with a splendid sprint in the last 50 yards probably too long delayed. Entering the home stretch Hagen was fifth and was gaining on Reid rapidly. Lauren P. Brown of Michigan State was third about 9 yards behind leading Edward R. Welles of Princeton who finished in the same position in 1927. Welles was 2 yards behind. Horace H. Benson of Cornell, sixth in 1927, was a yard back in fifth position. The contestants in this race were almost indistinguishable through a coating of mud.

Collier of Brown, the runner-up in 1927 and winner of the Indoor hurdles, was second in a very close finish. He was not more than 2 feet behind. Richard H. Game and William S. Edwards both of Yale were third and fourth respectively, 3 and 4 yards behind the winner. Eber M. Wells of Dartmouth champion in 1927 who was still handicapped by an injury received indoors was fifth.

16-POUND SHOT PUT

The meet had scarcely opened on Friday when Eric C. W. Krenz the Stanford sophomore on his second trial put the shot 50 feet and 1 inch or  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inches further than the Inter-collegiate record. Within three minutes Harlow P. Rotherth of Stanford also a sophomore made a put of 50 feet  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch or  $\frac{3}{4}$  of an inch further than the former record. It was noted by the knowing ones that one of the important elements of these remarkable performances was the ease with which the men performed. Later when trying harder the results were much inferior. Third place was taken by David Adelman of Georgetown who was fourth in 1927 with a put of 46 feet  $9\frac{3}{4}$  inches. John F. Anderson of Cornell was fourth with 46 feet  $9\frac{1}{4}$  inches and Albert E. Forster of Stanford was fifth with 46 feet  $8\frac{3}{4}$  inches. It will be noted that one inch or less separated the three last place men. All of these distances were made on Friday, the weather of Saturday preventing any improvement.

Won by Eric C. W. Krenz, Stanford, '30, 50 ft. 1 in.
Second, Harlow P. Rotherth, Stanford, '30, 50 ft.  $\frac{1}{2}$  in.

JAVELIN THROW

The javelin throw was won by Creth B. Hines of Georgetown, last year's champion, with a throw of 200 feet 10 inches. Hines' record performance of last year was 205 feet 7 $\frac{5}{8}$  inches. Anthony Ghillany of Columbia, who was leading up to the last round on Friday, was second with 199 feet 4 inches. Leo P. Kibby of Stanford was third with 195 feet 2 inches. Fourth place was taken by William A. Sparling also of Stanford with a throw of 192 feet 6 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches. Fifth place was won by William T. Healey of Princeton, who was fourth last year, with 188 feet 9 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches. Kibby was the only point-winner to improve his throw. For the first time a device was used to assist the measurers in holding the tape perpendicular to the take-off line. Parallel lines perpendicular to the take-off were painted on the ground and a line parallel to the take off was drawn 150 feet distant. These lines were found to render material assistance.

Won by Creth B. Hines, Georgetown, '29, 200 ft. 10 in.
Second, Anthony Ghillany, Columbia, '30, 199 ft. 4 in.

RUNNING HIGH JUMP

The effect of the weather was soon noticeable in the high jump. Robert W. King of Stanford won the event with a jump of 6 feet. In 1927 he was second with 6 feet  $3\frac{3}{8}$  inches and in 1926 he won with a record jump of 6 feet  $5\frac{3}{4}$  inches. The seven men who qualified on Friday at 5 feet 10 inches all placed in the finals. Benjamin V. D. Hedges of Princeton, Thomas L. Maynard of Dartmouth, who won the event in 1927 at 6 feet  $4\frac{1}{2}$  inches, and Cecil T. Russell of Brown tied for second at 5 feet 10 inches. Hugh Kaul of Yale, Carrell K. ## DISCUS THROW

In winning the discus Eric C. W. Krenz of Stanford added his second Intercollegiate record. The throw of 154 feet 11 inches was 3 feet  $7\frac{5}{8}$  inches further than that of the previous record holder, Clarence L. Houser of Southern California, made in 1926. Curiously enough the record in the shot made on the same day was also held by Houser. Irvine Phillips of California was second with 145 feet  $6\frac{1}{4}$  inches. Phillips was second in 1927. Third place was taken by Gilbert I. Welch of Pittsburgh with 144 feet  $10\frac{1}{2}$  inches. Welch was also third in 1927. John F. Anderson of Cornell was fourth with 144 feet  $2\frac{1}{4}$  inches. Anderson was the only finalist to improve his mark on Saturday though the further distance of nearly 4 feet did not change his position. Fifth place was taken by Arthur G. Baker of Swarthmore with 139 feet  $7\frac{3}{4}$  inches.

Won by Eric C. W. Krenz, Stanford, '30, 154 ft. 11 in. (I. C. A. A. A. Record).

RUNNING BROAD JUMP

Alfred H. Bates of Penn State for the second time broke the Intercollegiate record in the broad jump, this time displacing his own record of 24 feet 8½ inches made last year with a splendid leap of 24 feet 10⅜ inches, the result of his last trial on Friday. None of the jumpers improved their marks on Saturday, in fact there were frequent fouls and four of the jumpers passed their last three tries. As a result the performances with the exception of the winner were not up to last year's standards when fifth place was taken with a jump of 24 feet and 7⁄8 of an inch. G. Kimball Dyer of Stanford took second place with 24 feet 5⁄8 inches, the only other place winner to exceed 24 feet. Dyer was fifth in 1927. Frederick B. Zombro of Stanford who was fourth in '27 took third place with 23 feet 9¼ inches. Jesse T. Hill of Southern California was fourth with 23 feet 8⅜ inches and Allen C. Thomas, Jr., of Haverford was fifth with 23 feet 7⅛ inches.

Won by Alfred H. Bates, Penn State, '28, 24 ft. 10⅜ in. (I. C. A. A. A. Record).

Third, Frederick B. Zombro, Stanford, '29, 23 ft. 9¼ in.

Fourth, Jesse T. Hill, Southern California, '29, 23 ft. 8⅜ in.

Fifth, Allen C. Thomas, Jr., Haverford, '28, 23 ft. 7⅛ in.

POLE VAULT

As was expected Sabin W. Carr of Yale won the pole vault but his vault of 13 feet 6 inches was naturally below his previous performance due to the weather. Carr is the holder of the Intercollegiate and World's Outdoor record of 14 feet and the World's Indoor record of 14 feet 1 inch. Lee S. Barnes was second, as in 1927, this year with a vault of 13 feet. Barnes' phenomenal vaulting previously in the season gave promise of a close finish with Carr but he naturally failed to perform at his best. There was a triple tie for third place between R. Ward Edmonds of Stanford, Victor W. Pickard of Pittsburgh and Frederic H. Sturdy of Yale at 12 feet 6 inches. All of the finalists together with Bouldin G. Burbank of Harvard and Joseph N. Williams of Cornell qualified on Friday with a vault of 12 feet 6 inches.

Won by Sabin W. Carr, Yale, '28, 13 ft. 6 in.

HAMMER THROW

The result of the hammer saw three Cornell men placed among the point-winners who scored 8 points. Norwood G. Wright of Cornell with his throw of 167 feet 7½ inches on Friday won the event. Wright was fifth last year with 153 feet 4¾ inches. Edmund F. Black of Maine was second with 167 feet 4 inches. Last year Black finished in third position with 159 feet 7¾ inches. Donald S. Gwinn of Pittsburgh took third with 163 feet 4 inches. Harold N. Cohen with 151 feet 7 inches and Warren L. Worden both of Cornell with 150 feet 6¾ inches were respectively fourth and fifth. The performances were uniformly better than in 1927 when the event was won by Marion M. Ide of Penn State with 162 feet 1½ inches. Third place this year was better than the winning throw of the year before.

FIFTY-FIRST ANNUAL TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIP MEETING,
MAY 27-28, 1927

THE Fifty-first Annual Track and Field Championship Meeting was held at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, on May 27 and 28, 1927. From the point of view of competition and the conduct of the Meet, this year's championships showed an improvement over even the remarkable meet of last year.

The championship was won by Stanford University with a total of 36½ points. Penn State was second with 27 points, Yale third with 23½ and Southern California fourth with 23 points.

After nearly a month of rain both days were almost ideal save for a strong wind on Friday. Unfortunate experiences of the past proved to those conducting the meet that the field must be kept clear of inactive officials and competitors. For this reason solely inactive officials were required to sit in the stands and it is believed that the inner field presented very nearly the minimum of crowding.

The competition was uniformly excellent. Four records were broken.

Sabin W. Carr of Yale accomplished the remarkable feat of breaking the world's record in the pole vault at 14 feet after a thrilling competition with Lee S. Barnes of Southern California, who vaulted 13 feet 9½ inches. W. P. Edmonds of Stanford who was third with 13 feet 6¼ inches was 4¼ inches above the former intercollegiate record. The fifth man in this competition did 13 feet.

Saturday witnessed the breaking of the record in the 220-

100-YARD DASH

Charles E. Borah, Southern California, '29, won the 100 by a yard from Howard C. Paulsen, Yale, '27, after a stirring race in which he led from the start. The time of 9.8 seconds was duplicated by him in both the trial and semi-final heats. Richard H. Bartholomew, Penn State, '28, was a foot behind Paulsen with Edgar L. House, Southern California, '27, a similar distance back. Alfred H. Miller, Harvard, '27, who was fifth by a scant foot was the only surviving point-winner from the previous year. Due to the cold spring in the East, performances in the sprints had not been remarkable and first place was generally conceded to the western sophomore, whose record had been uniformly high.

220-YARD DASH

Charles E. Borah, Southern California, '29, won the 220 Dash as well as the 100. The longer dash was the most remarkable performance seen in the Intercollegiates in many years. The time of 20.9 seconds struck from the books the record of 21 1-5 seconds of Bernard J. Wefers of Georgetown which had stood from 1896 but had twice been equaled. The field was much better in this race than in the 100 and yet the winner finished five yards ahead of Richard H. Bartholomew, Penn State, '28, who was second, and 16 feet ahead of Howard C. Paulsen, Yale, '27. J. Oliver MacDonald, Pennsylvania, '27, followed one foot behind and Lyle Filkins, Penn State, '28, was fifth by a like distance.

440-YARD RUN

The 440-yard Run was won by Frederick P. Alderman, Michigan State, '27. This was the first appearance of Michigan State in the Association and the result was something of a surprise. Three of the point-winners of the previous year were in the race and with the exception of Cecil Cooke, Syracuse, '27, who came in fourth, none of them scored. This race, usually the most uncertain on the program, provided a thrill in a driving finish. Alderman who had previous to this year confined his efforts to the sprints came through to win by a yard from Lancelot P. Ross of Yale, '28. Raymond Barbuti, Syracuse, '28, was a yard behind and Cecil G. Cooke was fourth by another yard. Fifth place was taken by Gerard Swope, Dartmouth, '29, four yards behind the winner. The heats were won in 49.4, 48.5 and 49.7 seconds.

ONE-MILE RUN

The One-Mile Run produced one of the most interesting races of the day although the result was not close. William J. Cox, Penn State, '29, Indoor Champion, in 4 Minutes 18.6 Seconds, and Ellsworth Haggerty of Harvard, '27, twice Outdoor Champion, ran for three-quarters of the distance in a class by themselves. The pace set by Cox proved to be too much for his antagonist who at the beginning of the straight-away after responding to the sprint stopped in a state of complete exhaustion. Cox won in the good time of 4 Minutes 21.2 Seconds by 11 yards from Charles J. Sansone, Colby, '28. Allison A. Wills, Bates, '27, was third 5 yards back. Alexander M. McKinnon, Stanford, '29, came next 5 yards back and James O. Wildes, Harvard, '29, took fifth place 28 yards behind the winner.

As usual the field was a large one and the start was somewhat crowded but not nearly so bad as the race two years ago.

The field in this event was a high class one and included Benson of Cornell first in the Indoor Meet, Loucks of Syracuse twice second in the Outdoor Meet and in Cross Country, Briggs of Yale second Indoors and Smith of Yale second in Cross Country. A number of other former point-winners competed. The fast pace set throughout, however, disposed of many and Payne emerged early in the race and for the last two laps held a commanding lead to win by 16 yards from Macauley L. Smith, Yale, '27. James L. Reid, Harvard, '29, was third by a yard leading Edward R. Welles, Princeton, '28, by 9 yards. Albert M. Briggs, Yale, '27, was fifth 34 yards behind the winner. Horace H. ## THROWING THE JAVELIN

The javelin throw was the first event of the day to see a record broken. Creth B. Hines, Georgetown, '29, on his last throw sent the javelin out 205 ft. 7 $\frac{7}{8}$  in. for a new record. The previous record made by Storrs of Yale was 199 ft. 1 in. and was made in 1923. This throw was more than 6 ft. further than Hines' next best throw. Vincent J. Moroney, also of Georgetown, '29, was second with a throw of 199 ft. 1 in. equaling the previous record. Due, however, to the high wind of Friday this would have gone without recognition. Ted E. Shipkey of Stanford, '27, was third with 191 ft. 4 $\frac{1}{4}$  in. William T. Healey, Princeton, '29, was fourth 17 $\frac{7}{8}$  in. behind. Thomas G. Moore, Harvard, '29, was fifth with 190 ft. 9 $\frac{5}{8}$  in.

POLE VAULT

The most remarkable performance of the meet was the vault of Sabin W. Carr, Yale, '28, who cleared the bar at 14 feet with several inches to spare. This performance created a new world's record. It came as the last thing on the program and as the bar mounted higher and higher the entire audience rose and stood to watch the breaking of the record. The entire contest was filled with interest and excitement. Lee S. Barnes, Southern California, '28, who was second with a vault of 13 ft. 9½ in. was 7½ in. above the previous Intercollegiate record. Ward Edmonds, Stanford, '29, with 13 ft. 6½ in. was 4¼ in. above the old record. Stephen Bradley, Princeton, '27, and E. Jack Williams, Southern California, '29, tied for fourth place with 13 ft. In no similar contest have pole vaulters of this calibre come together. The record of Barnes in this event was higher than the American record. It is to be noted that both Carr and Barnes are juniors and Edmonds a sophomore.

HIGH JUMP

The high jump proved one of the upsets of the Meet. It was won by Thomas L. Maynard, Dartmouth, '29, with a jump of 6 ft. 4½ in. Robert W. King, Stanford, '28, was compelled to be satisfied with a tie for second place with Henry J. Coggeshall, Southern California, '28, at 6 ft. 3¾ in. Last year King not only won the event but broke the Intercollegiate record with a jump of 6 ft. 5¾ in. It is to be noted that this is the first year in which the new supports for the cross-bar were used. Oather L. Hampton, California, '27, and George P. Larsen, Yale, '28, tied for fourth place at 6 ft. 2½ in. Thomas A. Work of Stanford was sixth at 5 ft. 11¾ in. His jump on Friday was 6 ft. ¼ in.

The discus was won by Clifford P. Hoffman, Stanford, '27, with a throw of 150 ft. 7 in. or  $8\frac{3}{8}$  in. below the Intercollegiate record. Hoffman last year took fourth place with 137 ft. 2 in. All of the other place men were new point-winners. Irvine L. Phillips, California, '28, was second with 144 ft.  $4\frac{1}{2}$  in. Gilbert L. Welch, Pittsburgh, '28, was third with 142 ft.  $10\frac{7}{8}$  in. David L. Evans, Stanford, '27, fourth with 141 ft.  $3\frac{1}{4}$  in. and John F. Anderson, Cornell, '29, fifth with 139 ft.  $\frac{1}{4}$  in. Fifth place this year was nearly 4 ft. better than fifth place last year.

BROAD JUMP

The broad jump event saw the breaking of another Intercollegiate record. Alfred H. Bates, Penn State, '28, leaped 24 ft. 8½ in. or a half inch better than the performance of William A. Cummins, who made the record jump in 1924. The competition in this event was comparable to the pole vault. Every man winning a point jumped over 24 ft., a most unusual competition. Theodore A. Mathias, a teammate of Bates, was second with 24 ft. 5¾ in. Sidney T. Meeks, Stanford, '27, was third with 24 ft. 1¾ in. Fourth place went to Fred B. Zombro, Stanford, '29, with 24 ft. 1⅛ in. G. Kimball Dyer, Stanford, '28, took fifth place with a jump of 24 ft. 7⅛ in. Not only was the breaking of the record unexpected but even the result of the event. Stanford and California with four entries who had repeatedly cleared 24 ft. were expected to dominate the event. The result showed them only in third, fourth and fifth places. William A. Dowding, Georgetown, champion last year and twice Indoor champion, failed to place.
