ANNUAL Y.M.C.A. JACKSON DAY HANDICAP RACE.

Held January 7, 1928; distance about 6 1-2 miles.

This race is held to commemorate the Battle of New Orleans (January 8), when Jean Lafitte and his men ran from Spanish Fort to Jackson Square, opposite St. Louis Cathedral, to go to the aid of Gen. Jackson. The boys run over the same route and cups are awarded to the winners of the first eight places. The 1928 race was the twenty-first annual.

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS.

By AXEL NORDQUIST,

Sports Editor Swedish "North Star," New York.

[Mr. Nordquist for many years has compiled the European track and field championships for the Athletic Almanac. In addition to his duties as sports editor of "North Star," he supplies a daily letter on sports to the "Dagens Nyheter" (New News) of Stockholm, Sweden.—PUBLISHERS.]

Perhaps the greatest surprise of the Olympic Games was the downfall of the United States in the 100 and 200-meter dashes, which were won by the Canadian youth, Percy Williams. Lloyd Hahn's defeat was another unexpected reverse. Paavo Nurmi surprised by winning from and losing to Willie Ritola. Nurmi also lost to T. A. Loukola. Joie Ray's hope of wearing the Olympic marathon crown was shattered when he finished in fifth place. What surprises are in store for 1929? Nurmi should give up middle distance racing and confine his efforts to marathon running, where his chances are good to hang up a world's record for the distance. Harry Larva, his countryman, is expected to break Nurmi's record for the mile and lower the time to 4:07 in the near future. Two Finns who will bear watching are E. Purje and Loukola.
