UCLA Picked For 2nd Straight Title; KU's Ryun Heads Top Crop Of Sophs

By ED CHAY

College Sports Editor, Cleveland Plain Dealer

UCLA is headed for a second straight National Collegiate track and field championship, and its margin could be even bigger than the record 48-point spread achieved last year at Bloomington, Ind.

Coach Jim Bush of the Bruins has nine individuals back who scored points in the national meet, plus four outstanding sophomores and several junior-college transfers. This makes UCLA mighty tough.

Where will the challenge come from for the national title? Some believe Brigham Young, runnerup to UCLA, will make a strong bid since the '67 nationals go to BYU's home field in Provo, Utah. Tennessee, the rising power of the Southeastern Conference, could be a contender; Kansas, which has brilliant Jim Ryun, figures to develop, while such traditional powers as Southern California, California, Oregon, New Mexico, Arizona and Villanova expect to be in the running.

Ed Chay

Ryun, who smashed world records in the mile (3:51.3) and the half mile (1:44.9) last spring as a freshman at Kansas, heads a spectacular group of youngsters coming up for varsity competition in 1967.

Others are Richmond Flowers, sensational hurdler from Tennessee; Paul Wilson, a 17-foot vaulter from Southern Cal.; Bob Seagren, former world pole vault record-holder (17-5½) from Compton (Calif.) JC who will perform for USC; Carl Height of Louisiana State (9.3); USC sprinter Lennox Miller (9.3); Notre Dame's Bill Hurd (9.4); UCLA's Harold Busby (9.4), Kenny Head of New Mexico, a 46.4 quarter-miler and Lee Evans of San Jose (46.2).

Add such veterans as Randy Matson of Texas A&M, Charlie Greene of Nebraska, Gerry Lindgren of Washington State, Ron Copeland of UCLA and Tommie Smith of San Jose State, and you have the makings of a great field.

The West Coast has dominated the nationals for some time and the pattern will continue. UCLA gets most of the attention because the Bruins are defending champs. Besides Copeland, National Collegiate high hurdles champ (13.6), UCLA returns sprinters Norm Jackson (9.4, 20.6), Tom Jones (9.5, 20.6) and Don Domansky, quartermiler Gene Gall (47.2), distance ace Geoffrey Pyne (4:02.0, 8:47.2, 13:47.8), intermediate hurdler Roger Johnson (50.5), Richard Selby, javelin (249-6), and pole vaulter Marc Savage (16-9).

Bush also counts on miler Richard Romero (4:05.2), distanceman George Husaruk (4:06.2, 8:54.8), Egil Sunbye, javelin (235-4¼) and high jumper Mike Weinreich (6-9¼). Newcomers from the freshman squad are Busby (20.6), high jumper Larry Fisher (6-9), miler Kevin Goff and weightman Steve Marcus. Two of the top JC transfers are high jumper Dick Sloan (6-10) and pole vaulter Dick Railsback (16-2).

Southern Cal, which shared the National Collegiate title in 1965 with Oregon, retains several big guns as does California, so the AAWU scramble could be interesting. USC's top individuals are hurdler Paul Kerry, Greg Heet and Gary Carlsen in the weights, Bill Fosdick (16-0), miler John Link (4:02.2), Parke Wolff (46.8) and half-milers Dennis Car (1:47.8) and Dave Buck.

Heading California's talented squad are distance aces Randy Haase and Bob Price (4:04.0), Gary Mahan (9.5), Lou Kirtmand, Lary Hengel (46.7), Paddy McCroxy (51.2), and half-milers Mike Shafer and Devore Smith give the Golden Bears good balance. Stanford counts on Jim Ward and Roger Cox in the 220, Don Forbes in the 100, Bud Walsh in the hurdles and Jim Eshelman in the vault. Oregon State has AAU six-mile champion Tracy Smith, Dennis Phillips, national JC pole vault record-holder (16-8), Phil Lowry, javelin (241-1) and sprinter Ernie Smith, the brother of San Jose's explosive Tommie.

Neal Steinhauer, with a best of 67- $\frac{3}{4}$ in the shotput and 185-7 in the discus last season, is back for Oregon Coach Bill Bowerman. Also returning is Wade Bell (1:48.4, 3:59.8), hurdler Bob Blum (13.8) and sophomore Roscoe Divine (3:59.1). Gerry Lindgren, Washington State's durable distance star who won the National Collegiate three and six-mile crowns, is back for a junior season he hopes will be free of illness.

New Mexico and Brigham Young figure in another tight battle for the Western Athletic Conference crown. Returning for New Mexico are sprinter Bernie Rivers, Rene Matison (9.3) and Steve Caminiti (9.5), hurdler Hal Bailey, half-miler Pat Cox, miler Mike Thornton (4:04.6), Ira Robinson in the broad jump, Art Baxter in the triple jump (51- $\frac{1}{4}$), Web Laudat in the steeplechase and Eric Christianson in the javelin.

Brigham Young's holdovers are National Collegiate steeplechase king Bob Richards, shotputter Ken Patera (62-7 $\frac{1}{4}$), high jumper Gary Hines (6-10), Dick Legas, javelin (235-9), triple jumper Pete Danna (50-8) and sprinter Dave Reeves. Arizona's threats are high jumper Ed Caruthers (7-1 $\frac{1}{2}$), hurdler Dale Frederick (13.7) and Jim McArdle, discus (184-6).

Utah State's guns will be Jim Helton, broad jump (24-8 $\frac{1}{2}$), hurdler Jerry Cerulla (13.8), Ain Rost, discus (177-1), vaulter Marden Connelly (15-7) and half-miler Dave Roberts.

In the Southeastern Conference, Tennessee is making all the rumbles. Coach Chuck Rohe says this should be his best team: "We have more balance, particularly with added strength in the field events. The addition of sophs Larry Kelly (1:51.2), Steve Owens (15-8) and Flowers will make us stronger."

Rohe is confident Flowers' hurdle and sprint times will improve this season. His indoor time of 6.0 in the 60 is only 1/10 of a second off the world mark. Rohe is also expecting good things from hurdler Roger Neiswender (13.8), George Moschis, javelin (247-8), Phil Smith, hurdles and sprints, dashman Carroll Thrift and distanceman Dale Story.

The spotlight in the Southwest Conference will be focused again on Texas A&M's Randy Matson, the world record-holder in the shotput (70-7). Randy added the National Collegiate shot (67-1 $\frac{1}{2}$) and discus (197-0) records in 1966.

Independent Abilene Christian's mile relay team, which placed fourth in the National Collegiate meet (3:08.6) is returning, along with quarter-miler Riley Dunn, miler Al Van Troba (4:05.8), Bruce Johnson (4:07.0) and Gary Hobson (15-7). Outstanding sophs are Ronnie Crawford (46.8), Howard Van Loon (weights), Monte Stratton (9.5) and vaulter Pinto Benne (15-5 $\frac{1}{2}$).

A three-way fight looms in the Big Eight as Coach Frank Sevigne's Nebraska squad fights off Kansas and Oklahoma. Charlie Greene, who won the National Collegiate 100 (9.3) and took the Big 8 100 and 220 titles, returns along with high jumper Steve Koebis (6-8), Dennis Hagin, discus, Dave Kudron, hurdles, and quarter-miler Dennis Walker (47.8).

Colorado's junior Chuck Rogers, who won the National Collegiate pole vault title last year and boasts a best of 16-5, is back. Oklahoma State looks for Chris McCubbins, fourth in the National Collegiate steeplechase, and Jimmy Metcalf (1:47.8) to help. Miles Lister, discus (176-10), Larry Curts, vault (16-0), hurdler Jiff Glasgow and Doug McDougell are also on hand.

Drake, which had won three straight Missouri Valley Conference crowns before getting knocked off by Wichita last May, promises to make a strong comeback. The Bulldogs had a half dozen freshman runners well under varsity championship times.

But Wichita returns most of its point winners, including pole vaulter Fred Burton, who set a Drake Relays record (16-6). And 1966 runnerup North Texas State will be stronger, with fine sophs bolstering such holdovers as hurdler Louis Smith (14.4), sprinter Doyle Magee (21.9) and Calvin Bowser, javelin (240-10).

Cincinnati expect Cornelius Lindsay to improve on his league high jump record (6-7 $\frac{1}{2}$). Bradley, although shallow in numbers, has champion returnees in Rod Collins, three-mile cross country winner and two-miler John Evans. New member Memphis State will compete for the MVC title for the first time.

The Big Ten, which hasn't produced a national team champion since 1948 when Minnesota edged USC, will show improvement with Michigan State, 1966 indoor and outdoor champion, and Iowa battling for league honors.

Bob Steele, National Collegiate intermediate hurdles king (50.4), heads the Spartans, who include Big Ten champ John Spain (1:48.0), hurdler Gene Washington (13.8) and two-miler Dick Sharkey. Das Campbell (47.0), Mike Bowers, Jim Summers and Rick Dunn figure to help.

Wisconsin lost nine seniors but the Badgers have 10 fine sophomores and could be a factor in the race. Top performers are Brian Bergemann (15-4), Don Mills, Tom Erickson, Bruce Fraser, Ken Latigolal (1:52.2) and Rickey Poole (4:09.8).

Iowa figures to be a contender with middle distanceman Mike Mondane, Bill Burnette (15-4), Larry Wiecezorek (4:06.9) and Jon Reimer (51.8). Michigan looks to Jack Harvey (59.0), Gary Knickerbocker (6-10), George Hoey (9.5), Jim Mercer (4:10.0), Bob Thomas, discus (170-0) and Ron Kutschinski (1:52.0).

Illinois is counting on junior sprinter Cyril Pinder and junior hurdler John Wright, while Northwestern sees big things for All-America cross-country runner John Duffield and sophomores Ralph Shultz (1:51.5), Doug Macomber (15.0), hurdler Simon Kent and miler Gordon Dreyfus.

Minnesota's quality performers are Hubie Bryant, Mike Gillham (47.3), Tom Heacon, distances, Dick Simonsen, sprints and Tom Stuart (6-8 $\frac{1}{4}$). Ohio State hopes to rise with Jim Clark (15-0) and Glenn Pettway (6-8).

Southern Illinois returns Olympian Oscar Moore and John Vernon in the jumps. Moore's best clockings are 4:03.8, 8:41.8, 13:28.9. Vernon spanned 51-7 in the triple jump. Mitsh Livingston (6-8), sprinters Ross MacKenzie and Robin Coventry, Al Ackman (1:49.7) and Jeff Duxbury (4:05.0) are other fine prospects. Notre Dame figures to have better balance with Hurd, Pete Farrell (1:48.7), Joe Quigley and Ed Broderick (6-8 $\frac{1}{4}$).

Bowling Green, Kent State and Miami (O.) will be Western Michigan's sternest challengers as WMU seeks its 10th straight MAC crown. Coach George Dales of Western says he will have to depend on sophomores in the 880 and on up, events which have always been his strong points. Top veterans for the Broncos are Horace Coleman, Don Castronovo, and Steve Straush, all 9.6 sprinters. Vaulter Paul Seeley (15- $\frac{1}{4}$) is back, along with Dave Badger (24-6), Bill Goule, Dick Jelinek, Chuck LeMon (13.9) and Ralph Stephenson (1:49.4).

Mel Brodt of Bowling Green believes sprinter Henry Williams (9.4, 21.2, 45.8 relay leg) could be one of the best in the nation. Other BG headlines are juniors Bob Knoll (1:54), and Bob Parks (1:53, 4:11), senior Mike Wegner (177-5) and junior shotputter Tom Gibson.

Kent State's top stars are Sam Bair (4:04.6, 8:49.3), sprinter Orin Richburg (9.5, 20.8), Marty Eisner (59.9, 168-9) and two fine vaulters—Dennis Steele (15-1 $\frac{1}{4}$) and sophomore John Linta (15-7 $\frac{1}{4}$).

Toledo's top individual is jumper Aaron Hopkins (25-6 $\frac{1}{4}$, 51- $\frac{1}{4}$), while Miami depends on hurdlers Jim Sibold and Wayne Van Houten, high jumper Ted Downing, half-milers Jim Isaacson and Jim Lehman and distanceman Joel Vore. Maryland, Harvard, Army and Navy will boom the loudest in the East.

Coach Jim Kehoe of Maryland has a lot of depth and balance returning from the team that won the IC4A indoor and outdoor titles and both crowns in the ACC. Headliners for the Terps are high jumper Frank Costello (7-1), sprinter Jim Lee (9.4, 20.9), Ed Marks, jumps, vaulter Tom Gagner (15-4), Dick Dull (243-5), hurdler Bruce Carson and half-miler Dan Honahue.

Villanova, the East's most recent National champion in 1957, hopes to improve on last year's 10th place finish. Coach Jim Elliott's top individuals are National Collegiate mile champ Dave Patrick (4:02.1), Ian Hamilton (1:48.9), and Vince Bizzaro (15-9).

Indoor Heptagonal champion Harvard will be the best of the Ivies. The Crimson return sprinters Sam Robinson and Jeff Huvell, miler Jim Baker, pole vaulter Steve Schoonover and Ron Wilson in the weights. Cornell brings back quarter-miler Bill Brickel, hurdler John Elliot, distanceman Jim McKusick, Bob Holmes and Wayne Gustafson.

Army looks to miler Jim Warner, pole vaulter Steve Kujawski, weightman Dan Seebart and Larry Hart, javelin, while Navy has a triple-threat in junior Tom Palkie, winner of the Heptagonal 100, 220 and broad jump.

Dartmouth pole vaulter Harris Wagensel returns; Yale looks to Paul Jones in the shotput and Randy Roll in the high jump; Penn's key is sprinter Rick Owen; Brown's top man is Wayne Anagua of Africa in the sprints and Princeton counts on half-miler Werner Endrickot.

Penn State expects big things from triple jumper Chip Rockwell, high jumper John Cibiati and miler Art Morris. St. John's, which hopes to be a factor in the Metropolitan championships, has had the best freshman team in the New York area for two years. John Bell (24-3 $\frac{1}{4}$) returns in the jumps, along with steeplechase star Tom Mulligan and Dick Sherman (discus).

A trio of standouts will perform for Boston College—Jim Kavanagh, weights, Bill Norris, steeplechase, and Larry Jeffers, 220 and 440.

1966 All-America Team

Following the National Collegiate Championships at Bloomington, Ind., the NCAA Rules Committee selected the following All-America team for 1966. The Committee increased the number from three to a minimum of four in each event. A certificate is awarded to each member of the team by the U. S. Track Coaches Assn. The selections for each event are listed alphabetically, not in preferential order.

TO THE VICTORS BELONG THE SMILES—Members of UCLA's record-breaking track and field team bask in the glory of their triumph, after throwing, jumping and running away from their competition in the 1966 National Collegiate Championships. The Bruins' 48-point margin over second-place Brigham Young was the greatest piled up by a winning squad in the meet's 45-year history.

National Collegiate Championships

By TOM MILLER
Sports Information Director, Indiana University

UCLA's awesome Bruins established themselves as one of the best-balanced and deepest squads in collegiate history as they outthrew, outjumped and outran the rest of the 1966 field at Indiana University for the most decisive victory in the 45-year history of the National Collegiate Track and Field Championships.

Tom Miller

Their 81-point total was the sixth highest ever compiled, and their 48-point margin over runnerup BYU was the biggest in history, surpassing the 46-point bulge USC piled up over second-place Ohio State in 1931.

UCLA captured four first places and finished second in three others. In all, the Uclans scored in 11 of the meet's 20 events.

Moreover, they accomplished these feats without defending mile champion Bob Day, the collegiate record-holder who was out with an injury.

Combination of the brilliant field and the lightning-fast grasstex track, which offered 10 extra-wide, four-foot lanes, produced great performances. By the meet's end there were four new National Collegiate championship records on the books, plus a fifth mark tied. New standards were set in the 440-yard relay, the 3-mile run, the discus and the shotput, while the 9.3 record in the 100-yard dash was equaled three times.

The shape of things to come was quickly established the first day. Charlie Greene, the defending 100-yard champion, won his heat in 9.3 to tie the meet record first set by Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian in 1957, and two heats later Tommie Smith, the jet-propelled junior from San Jose State, duplicated the feat. Greene uncorked another 9.3 in the final and bested Smith easily.

UCLA's 440 quartet whacked the meet record down to 39.9, only two-tenths of a second off Stanford's world record, and finished a full half-second ahead of BYU. It was at the finish of this race that San Jose's Smith pulled up with a leg cramp that forced him to scratch from the 220, where he had pending world records for both the straightaway and one-turn events.

It was another heartbreak for Tommie, an almost exact duplication of his misfortunes of 1965. As his coach, Bud Winter, commented: "Tommie may be the first world record-holder never to win a national championship." Earlier, in the first heat of the 220, Smith brought the crowd to its feet when he flew away from the pack and ran a 20.2, which would have tied the existing world record but for the 5.37 miles-per-hour favoring wind.

Two other super-stars of the meet, Texas A&M's Randy Matson and Washington State's Gerry Lindgren, accounted for the other three meet records. Matson broke Dallas Long's record in the shotput trials with a 65-6½ heave, then came back in the finals and boosted that to 67-1½.

In the discus, Matson had to come from behind after USC's Gary Carlsen led in the trials with a record 190-1½. But Matson was equal to the task and erased that mark with a 197-0 effort on his first try in the finals.

Lindgren, nursing a virus infection and a bad cough, came back from what appeared to be an under-wraps, 28:07.0 triumph in the 6-mile and won the 3-mile in 13:33.7. Although far above his pending 12:53.0 achievement a month before, the time was well under the 13:40.2 meet record.

Returning champions found the 1966 Championships somewhat of an ordeal. There were 13 individual champions back to defend titles. Day never got a chance in the mile, due to his heel injury. Of the remaining 12, only two retained their 1965 crowns—John Fiore of Boston College in the hammer throw and Greene in the 100-yard dash.

Defenders who had to settle for less were Earl Horner (Villanova), who finished second in the 220; Jim Kemp (Kentucky St.), third in the 440; Bruce Mortenson (Oregon), third in the steeplechase; Paul Kerry (USC), who went out in the semifinals of the high hurdles; Larry Godfrey (San Diego St.), who suffered a like fate in the intermediate hurdles; Neal Steinhauer (Oregon), second in the shotput; Bob Stoecker (Stanford), third in the discus; injured Bill Fosdick (USC), who did not place in the pole vault; Frank Costello (Maryland), second in the high jump; and John Tushaus (Arizona), second in the javelin.

The new generation of champions, 13 of them undeclassmen, will face their own challengers in 1967 at Provo, Utah.

Four won crowns as sophomores—Dave Patrick (Villanova) in the mile, Bob Richards (BYU) in the steeplechase, Charles Rogers (Colorado) in the pole vault, and Lindgren (Wash. State) in the 3-mile and 6-mile runs.

Seven others were juniors—Matson in the shotput and discus, Greene in the 100, Ranier Stenius (L.A. State) in the broad jump, Ron Copeland (UCLA) in the 120-yard highs, Otis Burrell (Nevada) in the high jump, Bob Steele (Mich. State) in the intermediate hurdles and Tom Jones (UCLA) in the 220.

Seniors found themselves in a definite minority with five titles to spread among themselves. One was Fiore's repeat in the hammer, while the other came from Craig Fergus (San Jose St.) in the triple jump, Dwight Middleton (USC) in the 440, Peter Scott (Nebraska) in the 880 and Jim Stevenson (Penn State) in his upset of Tushaus, the American record-holder, in the javelin.
