

San Jose Trackmen Down OSU, 85-60

Hardin Has 51.6 Hurdles In Southwest

Corvallis

San Jose State, scoring heavily from the 880 through the two mile, defeated Oregon State, 80-65, yesterday, over a track made slow and sodden by a downpour just before the meet.

San Jose's John Garrison won the 880 in 1:51.9; Ben Tucker took the mile in 4:13.5, when OSU's highly regarded Morgan Groth dropped out with a leg injury, and the Spartans swept the two mile behind Tom Tuite's 8:58.9 when barefoot

Beaver Dale Story also dropped out because of injury.

San Jose's Wayne Hermen won both sprints, a 9.9 hundred and a 21.8 220, as the Spartans captured 11 blue ribbons to six for Oregon State.

Les Bond took the broad jump for San Jose with 23-8 and finished second in the triple jump behind teammate Craig Fergus' 48-9.
