ENTRIES

No.	Name	School	'68 Best	Lifetime
83	Willie Turner	OSU	9.3	9.3	#7 world ranking last year; co-holder world 100m record, 10.0
104	Lennox Miller	SC	9.3	9.2	#3 world ranking '67; defending champ, 2nd NCAA last year.
98	Fred Kuller	SC	9.3	9.3	4th NCAA last year
108	O.J. Simpson	SC	9.4	9.4	6th NCAA last year
80	Ernie Smith	OSU	9.5	9.5

2	Carlos Baron	Cal	9.6w	9.8
22	Jim Smith	Cal	9.8	9.6
118	Roger Cox	S	9.9	9.6
17	Joe Richards	Cal	10.0	9.7
61	Steve Davis	OSU	9.6	9.5

PROGNOSIS: Miller or Turner? Take your pick. Kuller could surprise, he has one win over Miller this year. Simpson has a win over Kuller, and was a scorer in the NCAA last year. Ernie Smith has been on Turner's tail all year. These five men should be the first five finishers, in some order. Although, Busby showed he might be coming back with a windy 9.5 at Fresno.

138	Don Domansky	UCLA	46.6	46.1	#4 world ranking in '67; 3rd in PanAm Games, 5th in NCAA

177	Marty Walsh	W	48.1	48.1
89	Howard Becker	SC	48.1
96	Rich Joyce	SC	48.8
35	Mike Deibele	O	48.4r

PROGNOSIS: They come in pairs, Domansky and VanHofwegan of UCLA, Paul and Marks of OSU, Weddle and Hengl of California, with Stanford's Ward and Washington's Dupree solo contenders.

If Domansky is back in form then the race should be his. If he isn't, and his 46.8 relay leg in Fresno is inconclusive, then he could drop well back, but VanHofwegan, a very consistent runner, still could win for the Bruins. Paul is a fine sophomore and is probably the favorite off his Northern Division show.

Ward, with the flu, and Dupree with a leg injury make themselves question marks.

 4) Buck (SC) 1:49.4; 5) Smith (OSU) 1:49.6; 6) Kruger (UCLA) 1:49.6.

ENTRIES

No.	Name	School	'68 Best	Lifetime

79	Terry Schukart	OSU	1:51.5	1:51.5
4	John Diehl	Cal	1:52.2	1:52.2
123	Mike Jacobs	S	1:52.5	1:52.0
172	Jim Schultz	W	1:53.8	1:53.8

PROGNOSIS: Trentadue is virtually untested against the Northerners. Crunican and VanDyk, big scorers last year, appear not to be in best shape and the best of the Ducks is soph Reverman who traded wins with Thompson in the dual meet and in the Northern Division meet. Lilly, inconsistent, Sandison way back in the Northern Division meet, and untested Devone Smith look like the other scoring battlers. Grant of SC has had a good year, running behind Trentadue, and soph Tallon has had a relatively fine year.

The heats could be fast, and telling in this event.

172	Jim Schultz	W	4:11.5	4:08.9
113	Bob Anchondo	S	4:11.3	4:11.3

PROGNOSIS: Only a healthy Neill Duggan figures to be able to crack the great Duck stable; certainly only Duggan could defeat either Wilborn or Kvalheim, but at his best it would still be questionable. John Link and perhaps Al Sanford could break in for points.

40	Hal Jackson	O	14:30	14:30
181	Larry Almborg	WSU	14:22.2	14:03.0	NCAA 6mile score in '67

PROGNOSIS: Lindgren avenged earlier two mile loss by beating Kvalheim at 3 miles in a fast race in the Northern Division meet. These two men are the fastest and fourth fastest collegiate three milers of all-time. Kvalheim will probably have already run a mile by the time this event is run, and Lindgren may have also. Oleson, a strong two miler all year, Stanford's fine sophomore Brock and the Ducks should run for the remaining places. Celms, who will be coming back from a steeplechase the day before, could certainly be a point scorer.

40	Hal Jackson	O
182	Rod Dahl	WSU	9:02.4	9:02.4	2nd Nor.Division.

PROGNOSIS: Gorman was a sure favorite until his 9:19 run in the Northern Division meet. For Oregon to challenge for the team championship the Ducks will have to dominate this event. John Celms and Rod Dahl, the one and two place finishers in the Northern Division meet could prevent, again, a Duck domination, although the remaining places will go to Bowerman's amphibians. No Southern runners figure to break in.

11	Paddy McCrary	Cal	51.5	50.6 #8 U.S. Ranking in '67, defending PAC-8 chmp. 2nd Nor.Division
175	Tom Strathairn	W	51.8	51.8
29	Bob Blum	O	52.0	52.0
186	Boyd Gittins	WSU	51.8	51.8 3rd Nor. Division

63	Dick Evans	OSU	52.9	52.9
124	Tom Kommers	S	53.3	53.3
12	Bob McLennan	Cal	53.4	53.4

PROGNOSIS: Knoke appears the heavy favorite. The battle should be for second place between Vanderstock and defending champion McCrary; they have not met this year, and neither at this time is running as well as last year. If Vanderstock and/or McCrary reach peak then Knoke could be in for a stiff race, especially if he runs the 440. The other scoring spots should go to Strathairn and Gittins with Blum, MacDonald and Evans battling.

PROGNOSIS: Marcus definitely has the edge on Van Reenan. He has had multiple 62 foot plus throws. Certainly, Marcus has no lock as 6-7 Van Reenan could rise to the challenge. The fight for third place should be as interesting with four 58' plus throwers and Wassell with a near 58' lifetime best.

31	Craig Brown	O	23-2 1/4	23-3 1/4
119	Chris Gibson	S	23-1/2	23-1/2

PROGNOSIS: The competition should be fierce in this event. Five 25-footers collide in great competition. The Oregon State crew both scored in last year's NCAA, defeating Royster, who beat them in this year's dual meet and in last year's conference meet. Oregon soph Tommy Smith split the Beaver duo in the dual meet but conquered the field in the Northern Division meet. Royster beat Vaughan in the dual, but he and McCullouch have not yet met, this year. Johnny Johnson was one of the greatest ever preps who has had injury problems, but he certainly could challenge for the gold medal and Henry was tough in the Northern Division meet. Barrie Johnson has had his problems lately but he was a high scorer last year.

155	Egil Sundbye	UCLA	210-5	235-4½
142	Vic Grady	UCLA		217-4

PROGNOSIS: Both Colby and Miller had their lifetime bests last Saturday so the duel should be a hot one. Colby has had two 250+ throws this year, but is a little more inconsistent. Miller has steadily improved.

Pennington had his best last Saturday, the last two Saturdays. Luke hasn't thrown in a long time but O'Donnell (WSU) appears to be rounding back into shape. Christianson was down last Saturday, but this is usually an inconsistent event.

Sagle and Voth also had best throws last Saturday, so, this field appears ready for great performances.

PROGNOSIS: Van Reenan, fifth best collegian of all-time, and Vollmer, sixth best collegian of all-time, renew their long range battle. Van Reenan won last week, but just 7" separated them. Wassell, Steve Johnson and a host of 170-foot throwers will battle for the remaining spots. Harrington has had good throws the last two weeks and should have the predicted edge over the 170-foot class.

PROGNOSIS: Clarence should be the favorite, but his 6-8 performance at Fresno casts doubt on this. Fosbury has been very consistent, as has Radetich, although continually second to Fosbury. Boyce has had just 6-6 in his last two meets. Sloan hasn't jumped for a long time and the Trojans have not had 6-10 jumps for quite a while.

Home pit, plus the fact that Clarence beat the Beavers in Corvallis still maintains the favorites mantle.

196	Jim Precht	WSU	15-0	16-5 1/2 Coming back from an injury
32	Mike Chaney	O	15-0	15-1 1/2

PROGNOSIS: Seagren, off his record this year and great Fresno vault, is the heavy favorite. Wilson, and Phillips, have had their problems lately, so second place is up for grabs. Varley and Robinson have hit 16' vaults in their last meets and certainly could figure for second. The health of Vaughn, 16-8 1/2 early, and Sloan, 16-8 last year, will determine whether this field will get even more competitive.
