

weather was unreal during steeple/440r/mile: 40mph winds, torrential rain. oregon folks said after meet "I thought eugene weather was bad, but this is ridiculous." i would hazard to say that anywhere else in united states, meet would have been delayed. track was under ~~water~~ water remainder of meet, although rain never really returned. quite cold, however. vault and high jump moved into edmundson pavilion.

DUAL TRACK MEET WASHINGTON vs. OREGON Husky Stadium, Seattle
April 8, 1972

Weather: 42 degrees at start; wind swirling 15-20 mph; immense downpour 2-2:30 pm,
