

fyi--Hines extremely bitter about this: don't know if he was misquoted, or didn't want it printed. but said he had fight with franken about it. not too happy, guess we better not reprint.

Henry Hines, USC's world-ranked long jumper, is a man who believes in himself. sq

Hines called Al Franken, director of the Sunkist indoor meet, to find out who would be competing in the Jan. 22 event at the Sports Arena.

Franken said the long jump field would include several key foreigners. Hines replied:

"Save your money, Al. Just tell the people that James McAlister (UCLA) and I are long jumping. That will fill the place."

Thank
Good to know.
