and Darrell Smith made it in the 220 (21.6).

Campbell is the defending champion. He only has two chances to time 47.0 in order to qualify for the NCAA championships. One of them is today. The other is next week at the California Relays in Modesto.

The decathlon favorite, Jim Foster of Fresno, with 3,387 points, trailed Rick Moore of Long Beach, the first-day leader after five events with 3,473 points. Moore set a meet record for decathlon high jumpers, clearing 6-8 3/4.

Moore's high jump, a foot higher than Foster went, made a difference of 300 points for that single event. Moore was sixth last year in the National Junior College decathlon championships. He also is a 14-foot vaulter—one of today's concluding events.

finale for the San Joaquin Country Club championship.

Enroute to the championship showdown both Kourafas and Nichaelides defeated some of the club's lower handicap players.

"I still don't know how it happened," said Kourafas. "I had my usual three or four pickup holes in every match, but the rest of the time I played super and I guess it was the same for Leo. When I defeated John McCarthy, he shot a 78 and I shot an 81.

"Actually when the tournament started my handicap was nine, but the first of June it became an 11. I told Gary unless I can
