Apparently fully recovered from his leg injury, Stanford's John Foster upset teammate Dave Bagshaw in the hurdles at 14.1 and also won the high jump at 6-6 as the Cardinals scored an 85-69 victory over Occidental at Stanford Stadium.

The hurdle time was equal to Foster's personal best, achieved in finishing third in the State JC meet last year and the high jump was his best by two inches. Foster was a last minute entry in that event.

Sophomore sprinter Marvin Holmes won both sprint races but his times, 9.9 and 21.5 were unimpressive since he was running into a strong headwind. Holmes also led off the Cardinals 440 relay team which won in 41.2, a meet record.

In the afternoon's featured race, Pac-8 champion Matt Hogsett ran the intermediate hurdles in 52.0 to defeat former NCAA Division II champion Bob Odell by two tenths.
