

AHS Soph Win Honors In X-Country Run

Competing against 21 schools across the by the Alameda High School sophomore team captured their division in the invitational cross country competition at Terra Nova.

Alameda's sophomore team is composed of the following athletes with their finish place:

Dale Cadwallader (4), Pat Ortez (9), Jerry Oliver (11) Doug Kreiss (13), Rich Wooten (14), Doug Mills (44) and Lester Mina (unable to finish).

Alameda varsity, now 10-1, in dual meet competition will face Pacific and Kennedy on Wednesday over the course at Joaquin Miller park in the Oakland foothills.

In the invitational meet at Terra Nova there were more than 120 runners in each classifications and Alameda's first runners and their places in each division were:

Varsity — Mike Wallace (26)

Junior varsity — Steve Pruitt (34)

Freshman — Dave Linkhart (14) and Don Price (15).