

Villanova jammed seven runners into the top eight places as the Wildcats won the Big Five cross-country championship, symbolic of supremacy among five Philadelphia area colleges.

Donal Walsh of the winners took individual honors with a hill record 24:51.2 for the 5.0 miles of Belmont Plateau. Marty Liquori was a laggard sixth.

Saturday, 10/31 at Philadelphia (5.0 miles)

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------|
| 1. Donal Walsh, Villanova | 24:51.2 |
| 2. Chris Mason, Villanova | 25:36 |
| and Wilson Smith, Villanova | |
| 4. Karl Thornton, Penn | 26:10 |
| 5. Byron Beam, Villanova | 26:18 |
| 6. Marty Liquori, Villanova | 26:31 |
| 7. Bill McLaughlin, Villanova | 26:37 |
| 8. Tom Flanagan, Villanova | 26:45 |
| 9. Bob Childs, Penn | 26:51 |
| 10. Julio Piazza, Penn | 26:54 |
| and Ken Keehn, Penn | |
| 12. Don Burke, St. Joseph's | 27:01 |
| 13. Jay Williams, Villanova | 27:03 |
| 14. Vince Waite, Penn | 27:06 |
| 15. Bruce Johnson, St. Joseph's | 27:10 |

Villanova 1-t2-t2-5-6-	17
Penn 4-9-t10-t10-14	48
St. Joseph's	76
LaSalle	122
Temple	151

(Ben Lachs)