Bulldogs

"COLLEGE OF SAN MATEO CROSS COUNTRY HISTORY"

Cross Country was organized at C.S.M. in the fall of 1961 by Fred Baer and Floyd Strain and met with quick success. Ralph Lee won the Big Eight Conference individual title that season and the Bulldogs placed fourth in the league.

The following season, under track and cross country coach Berny Wagner, the Mateans won eight league and practice meets and lost but one--to conference champ San Jose City College in the first league meet of the season. Jim Huff took the Golden Gate Conference individual title for the Bulldogs.

After that loss to San Jose, C.S.M. built a streak of 24 straight dual meet victories that wasn't broken until 1965. Included were two G.G.C. team championships. The Bulldogs were fourth in the first ever junior college state meet in 1964 after finishing third in Northern California.

In the Golden Gate Conference Finals, C.S.M. finished second to Foothill in 1962 and won the meet in 1963, 1964, and 1967.

C.S.M. individual league titles came in 1961 (Lee), 1962 (Huff), 1966 (Ted Lydon), and 1967 and 1968 (Mike Dailey).

Coach Phil Casaroli piloted the Bulldogs to 7-0 league records the past two years, running up near perfect scores in most meets. And last year, paced by sophomore Mike Dailey's individual triumph, the Bulldogs took their first Northern California crown.

In 1969, coach Bob Rush took over as the Bulldog harrier mentor. Starting off slow in 1969, the C.S.M. cross country team has gone three straight undefeated seasons since then. C.S.M. has a 21-0 league dual streak and 22-0 dual meet record.

CROSS COUNTRY COACH BOB RUSH

Bob Rush succeeded Phil Casaroli as track and cross country coach at the College of San Mateo in 1969.

Rush attended Sacramento Junior College and graduated from San Jose State College in 1958. He ran track and cross country at both colleges.

Rush started his coaching career at C.K. McClatchy High School in Sacramento where he was an assistant coach in track, cross country and football. In 1963 he moved to San Mateo High School as Head track and cross country coach. After six successful seasons at San Mateo High, Rush came to C.S.M. Since then his teams have won 3 straight undefeated in the Golden Gate Conference Championship. The track team won the Conference in 1970. In 1972 the cross country team was fourth in the state missing third by one point and second by four points.

Rush lives in San Carlos with his wife, Marianne, and two sons.

Cross Country

1974

The following freshmen should be returning for the 1974 season: Dana Carvey of Carlmont High School, Perry and Roger Fondacabe of Carlmont High School, Russ Fung also of Carlmont High School along with Bruce Sayres of Carlmont High School, Don Pemberton of Hillsdale High School, Chris Roaque from Capuchino High School and Jess Roat of San Mateo High School.

Next year's schedule will include four triple-triangular meets which will include the addition of the new Golden Gate Conference member colleges: De Anza College, Foothill College, and West Valley College. This new Golden Gate Conference should prove to be a very competitive one, particularly with the addition of West Valley College which has won 4 (four) straight "Camino Norte" Conference Championships.

Next year's schedule will include a plane trip to Southern California to Mount San Antonio Invitational Cross Country Run and hopefully a return flight to that same college for the State Meet Finals. We will also attend the Allan Hancock Invitational in Santa Maria. Our schedule will also include our own C.S.M. Invitation which will bring the top college teams from all over the state of California!

CSM harriers open fresh season today

This may be the season San Jose City College finally catches up to coach Bob Rush's College of San Mateo cross country team.

The Bulldogs, always hotly chased by San Jose, have won three straight titles and 21 Golden Gate Conference meets in a row.

But Rush claims "San Jose is loaded and we won't be as strong" as the junior college harrier season opens today at CSM's Crystal Springs

The Bulldogs will entertain Cañada, Foothill and Southern California power El Camino at 12:30 p.m.

Rush has a good, if not overpowering, veteran contingent led by Jim Van Dine, who was fifth in the state finals last year as the Bulldogs claimed third. Van Dine, though, has a badly pulled ligament and probably won't be ready until mid-October, if then.

Other Bulldog veterans include Carlmont's Ed Barney, who was 16th in the state last year, Rudy Snyder and Steve Calvin of Half Moon Bay, Ed Rios and Larry Dieu.

Most promising freshmen are Don Pemberton and Carlmont's Dana Carvey. They and Barney, Dieu, Snyders and Rios are Rush's current "first-string."

Other newcomers are Bruce Sayre, Roger and Perry Fondacabe, Russ Fung and Denny Gonzales of Carlmont; Chris Roaqua, Jess Roat and Rick Kushman, plus soph Bob Cook.

Meanwhile, Cañada's infant program will have its third coach in three years — Colt trainer Craig Brown, who did lots of running as a Sequoia footballer in 1961-63.

Brown claims two promising returnees — Bob Cooper of Sequoia, 10th in last year's Cammino Notre Conference finals, and Mark Parsons of HMB.

Jen-Goose, a service veteran, also looks promising, as do Leroy Rosing and Jose Sosa of Sequoia and Andy Thurm, who played basketball and tennis last year.

Freshman Whitney Van Damme of San Carlos and soph Brock Riddle, a Colt baseball star from Sequoia, round out Brown's squad.

Injured Van Dine handicaps harriers

The CSM cross-country team opened their season Saturday, Sept. 15, and illustrated less talent than in previous years, when they posted three Golden Gate Conference championships in a row and five out of the last six.

Coach Bob Rush said, "We should be very much in the running for the league title, but we won't be as strong as the team of a year ago when we took third in the State."

Although they easily beat Canada and Foothill, the over-all winner of last weekend's four-way meet was El Camino College of Southern California. El Camino, a perennial entrant in the State Championships, claimed the top three spots with CSM veteran Larry Dieu finishing fourth.

Dieu, timed in 21:54 for the four-mile course at Crystal Springs, displayed the best early form for the Bulldogs. Not far behind was sophomore Rudy Snyders and first year men Dana Carvey, Don Pemberton, and Chris Roaqua. Roaqua, an unheralded freshman, finished ahead of veterans Ed Barney and Ed Rios. Barney finished 16th in the state last year, and is expected to come on strong as the season progresses.

The big blow to this year's hopes was the knee injury sustained by CSM's reigning Nor-Cal champion, Jim Van Dine. "He will not be ready until at least October. It's more than likely he'll pass up this season so as not to lose a year of eligibility," Rush concluded.

The Bulldog Harriers face their next challenge Saturday. They take on Coast Conference champs Monterey Peninsula, Camino Norte champs West Valley College, and Camino Norte track champ Skyline College in the CSM Beach Run.

CSM harriers debut second

Southern California power El Camino College took five of the first six spots Saturday to sweep a four-team race as Warriors (17), College of San Mateo (42), Foothill (82) and Cañada (107) opened their cross country seasons Saturday at Crystal Springs.

Fourth-place Larry Dieu of CSM prevented an El Camino sweep.

Winner and CSM and Canada placers in top 25: Tomas Rodriguez (EC) 21:13, 4. Dieu (SM) 21:54, 7. Snyders (SM) 22:24, 9. Carvey (SM) 22:37, 10. Pemberton (SM) 22:44, 12. Roaqua (SM) 22:55, 13. Barney (SM) 23:03, 15. Rios (SM) 23:26, 16. Parsons (C) 23:27, Calvin (SM) 23:49, 20. Cooper (C) 23:55, 22. R. Fondacabe (SM) 24:35, 23. Sayre (SM) 24:45, Gonzales (SM) 24:46.
TEAM SCORES: El Camino 17, San Mateo 42, Foothill 82, Canada 107.

Bulldog harriers surprise

College of San Mateo's cross country team surprised its own coach Saturday, forcing him to reassess the Bulldogs' chances in the Golden Gate Conference title chase.

"I didn't think we were that strong," coach Bob Rush said after CSM won its fifth annual Beach Run, "but now I think we're going to be a contender."

The Bulldogs scored 58 points (low score wins) to West Valley's 72 in the four-mile run that starts on the sand at El Granada, goes two miles up the beach and then returns.

Allan Hancock was third with 93, Monterey fourth with 105, with College of Marin (108), Skyline (118), DeAnza (164) and Foothill (173) completing the pack.

Top individual was Monterey's Tom Pelton, timed in 21:20, while San Mateo's Larry Dieu was second in 21:34.

Meanwhile, Cañada College had somewhat less success in the Alum Rock Invitational Saturday, placing third in a three-team pack with 79 points to San Jose City College's 15 and Ohlone's 78. Bob Cooper in 9th place, Mark Parsons in 12th and Leroy Rosing in 17th were the top Colt finishers.

CSM Tabbed Rude Hosts

The College of San Mateo cross-country team continually plays the role of the rude host.

For the second straight year, coach Bob Rush's squad won its own annual Beach Run against seven other junior college teams. The Bulldogs posted the winning low score of 58 for the four-mile run at the Half Moon Bay beach.

Larry Dieu led the seven-man Bulldog team with a second place finish behind Monterey Peninsula's Tom Pelton. Ed Rios finished sixth for the Bulldogs. Other team members included Dana Carvey (14th), Rudy Snyders (18th), Chris Roaque (20th) and Ed Barney (24th).

Bulldog harriers snare Beach Run

The CSM harriers proved they are still a Northern California power last Saturday, Sept. 22, as they maintained their status as CSM Beach Run champs.

The Bulldogs, who finished with 58 points, easily defeated their nearest competitors, West Valley College, who amassed 72 points, and John Hancock, who had 93. Behind them were Monterey Peninsula, College of Marin, Skyline, De Anza, and Foothill.

Once again Larry Dieu was CSM's top finisher. He placed second overall, running 21:34 for the four-mile stretch of beach. Monterey Peninsula's Tom Pelton claimed the top spot out of 81, with a 21:20 effort.

Ed Rios was sixth overall and number two for the Dogs. Following him were Dana Carvey, Rudy Snyders, and Chris Roaque finishing 14th, 18th and 19th, respectively.

The race started at 1:03 p.m., to coincide with low tide. Pelton was the leader at the two-mile mark, but Dieu was back in the pack in the eighth position. Rios was also somewhere in the pack, running in 12th place.

Coach Rush said of the meet, "These are the time trials for our Southern California trip so our guys come out here and run like crazy." Joining the top five men on next weekend's trip will be Ed Barney and Don Pemberton, who placed 23rd and 27th.

Rush noted that Dieu is one of the most underrated runners in Northern California. "We showed some power today, but a lot of our guys are still a little out of shape," he stated, casting his gaze on Barney, Pemberton and Rios.

CSM Harriers Take a Pair

Special to The Times
WOODLAND HILLS —
College of San Mateo's cross-country team placed five runners in the top ten here yesterday, taking two matchups out of three in a triple dual meet.

Without injured ace Jim Van Dine competing, the Bulldogs needed a good team effort, and got it, placing fifth through tenth.

Rudy Snyders was the top CSM man in 21:17; he was followed to the tape by Larry Dieu, Alan Pemberton, Ed Barney and Dana Carvey. There was only a 34-second differential between Snyders and Carvey.

CSM beat Los Angeles Pierce, 20-38 and Pasadena 15-46; the Bulldogs lost to perennial power El Camino 24-32.

Harriers balance impressive, face rugged battle tomorrow

In over 90-degree weather in the Woodland Hills area of Southern California, last Friday the CSM harriers easily beat Pierce and Pasadena colleges and showed powerful El Camino they are much better than was evident in their previous meeting.

El Camino, claiming the individual winner, Steve Walsh, who ran the 4 miles in a time of 20:08, was the over-all victor in this triple dual meet. In case you don't understand cross-country scoring, a triple dual meet is scored thus: all four teams run their men in one race. Then scores are only kept one team against another. So the Bulldogs lost to El Camino, 24-32 (low score wins), but beat Pierce 20-38 and Pasadena 15-46.

Showing balance along with speed, the Dogs top five men were only 34 seconds apart. Rudy Snyders led the way in 21:17 and grabbed sixth place in the 40-man field. The next three spots were also filled with Bulldogs. They were Larry Dieu, 21:24; Don Pemberton, 21:31; and Ed Barney, 21:50. Fifth man for CSM was Dana Carvey. That means the top six were only 47 seconds apart.

Coach Bob Rush was happy with his team's performance. "I'm well pleased with the effort, particularly the close grouping. We're improving every meet and should be very tough both in the league and the Northern Cals."

Tomorrow the Dogs enter the Golden Gate Invitational at Golden Gate Park. "This should be a good indication of how well we'll do in Northern Cal finals. Our entire conference will be there along with most of the top teams in this part of the State." He expects West Valley, Delta, San Jose and reigning champs, CSM, to be the teams to beat.

CSM harriers improving

LOS ANGELES — College of San Mateo's rapidly improving cross country team lost narrowly to powerful El Camino, but topped Los Angeles Pierce and Pasadena yesterday in a four-way non-conference meet on the Pierce course.

CSM enjoyed a good 34-second spread among its first five runners, led by Rudy Snyders' fifth-place finish.

Winner and CSM placers: Steven Walsh (El Camino) 20:08; 5, Rudy Snyders 21:17, 6, Larry Dieu 21:24, 7, Don Pemberton 21:31, 9, Ed Barney 21:50, 10, Dana Carvey 21:51, 12, Chris Rooque 22:04, 28, Ed Ries 22:45 140 runners, 4 miles over Los Angeles Pierce course in Woodland Hills).

CSM Harriers

College of San Mateo's cross-country team faces a tough field from throughout Northern California in tomorrow's Golden Gate Invitational four-mile team race in Golden Gate Park, starting at 10 a.m.

The Bulldogs begin defense of their league title against Laney in a GGC center meet on the same course next Wednesday.

College of San Mateo's cross country team suffered its first setback from Northern California opposition while San Jose CC established itself as the favorite in the area following Saturday's Golden Gate team race in San Francisco.

San Jose CC ran away with the invitational in 1:46:49, finishing nearly three minutes ahead of runner-up College of Marin. CSM was sixth in the 20-team field in 1:50:42 and Canada 14th in 1:59:48. Times are based upon the first five finishers for each team over the four-mile Golden Gate Park course

Brooks won the race in 20:46 while the top CSM finisher was Larry Dieu, 20th in 21:49.

Meanwhile Skyline placed fourth among 11 teams in the Porterville small college invitational. Hancock won with 49 points and Skyline had 128.

CSM opens defense of its GGC title Wednesday, meeting Laney at Golden Gate Park, then hosts most of the north's teams in an invitational at Crystal Springs, Belmont, Saturday at noon.

CSM harriers win, Colts split

College of San Mateo nipped Laney 28-31 at Golden Gate Park in San Francisco for its 23rd straight Golden Gate Conference cross-country victory, while Cañada College beat Alameda but lost to host Marin yesterday in Camino Norte Conference action.

Larry Dieu's third and Ed Barney's fourth paced CSM. Bob Cooper finished sixth and Mark Parsons seventh to lead Cañada (48) past Alameda (72), but Marin (2u) dominated the race.

Winner and CSM runners: Bob Immanuel (L) 21:46, 3. Dieu 21:55, 4. Barney 22:11, 6. Snyders 22:15, 7. Pemberton 22:29, 8. Rios 22:35, 9. Roaue 22:38, 10. Calvin 22:55, 11. Sayre 23:07, 12. Bulldog, Colt harriers trail

SAN FRANCISCO — College of San Mateo placed sixth and Cañada College 14th in the 20-team Golden Gate Conference Invitational cross country race Saturday at Golden Gate Park.

Led by brilliant Steve Brooks, powerhouse San Jose CC easily won the team title. Brooks set a course record with a 20:46 effort over the 4.1-mile layout, while Larry Dieu topped San Mateo in 20th and Bob Cooper led Cañada in 44th in the 173-runner race. The results:

Winner and top CSM and Canada runners: 1. Steve Brooks (San Jose) 20:46, 20. Larry Dieu (SM) 21:49, 30. Ed Barney (SM) 21:57, 34. Rudy Snyders (SM) 22:10, 44. Bob Cooper (C) 22:17, 47. Don Pemberton (SM) 22:20, 50. Chris Roaue (SM) 22:27, 52. Steve Calvin (SM) 22:31, 60. Scott Carvey (SM) 22:44, 64. Mark Person (C) — 173 runners over 4.1-mile Golden Gate Park course.

TEAM SCORES (based on time): San Jose 1:46:49, Marin 1:49:53, Diablo Valley 1:49:50, Delta 1:50:15, American River 1:50:24, CSM 1:50:42, 14. Canada 1:59:48.

Harriers finish 6th in GG Invitational

The Golden Gate Invitational proved two things last Saturday. The top six teams in Northern California are very evenly matched and the Bulldogs are going to have trouble beating San Jose City College for the conference title. San Jose won the 20-team, 250-runner meet while CSM placed sixth.

Finishing ahead of the 'Dogs were Marin, Diablo Valley, Delta, and American River. But the Bulldogs easily beat second place Marin two weeks ago.

Coach Bob Rush assessed the meet this way. "San Jose showed they are very strong and will be tough to beat. However, the top six teams are very close and it will be interesting to see who represents Northern California in the state meet."

This meet was scored by the unusual method of total times for the teams' top five runners. San Jose totaled 1:46:49. CSM finished at 1:50:42. Top man for the 'Dogs was Larry Dieu, who grabbed off 20th place in 21:48 for the four-mile course.

Tomorrow the CSM Invitational at Crystal Springs will feature 25 teams and three races, large college, small college, and reserves. This will be another good indication of the strength and weaknesses of the Northern California teams.

Bulldog Harriers Win

Unbeaten in league duals since 1969, College of San Mateo's cross-country team got win No. 21 in yesterday's 1973 Golden Gate Conference opener, edging Laney, 28-31, in a center meet at Golden Gate Park.

With reigning Northern California champ Jim Van Dine sitting out the season with an injury, CSM is relying upon depth rather than a strong individual this year. Laney took the first two spots yesterday and placed state 880 champ James Robinson fifth.

But the Bulldogs took everything else of the first dozen places and got the victory. Larry Dieu was the top Matean in third place at 21:58, just two seconds behind Laney vet Melvin Hayes. Eagle Bob Immetium won the 4.1 mile race in 21:46 and Bulldog Ed Barney was fourth in 22:11.

In other competition during yesterday's center meet, league favorite San Jose CC measured Diablo Valley 24-35, and Chabot beat host CCSF, 17-44.

CSM hosts 30 teams from throughout Northern California in the season's biggest invitational, Saturday at noon on the Crystal Springs (Hallmark Homes) course in Belmont.

Harriers 3rd in Invitational, win 22nd consecutive meet

Last Saturday the balance among Northern California cross-country teams was displayed again in the CSM Invitational at Crystal Springs. With the exception of San Jose City College, who is clearly the top contender for the Nor Cal title, the other seven teams are very evenly matched and the CSM Bulldogs are right in the middle of the pack.

They captured third place in the large college division, beating every team that beat them last week except San Jose. West Valley College, whom the Dogs defeated twice this season, grabbed off second place.

San Jose totaled 41, far ahead of West Valley's 101, CSM's 130, San Joaquin Delta's 133, and Marin's 143.

On Wednesday of last week the Bulldogs extended their dual meet win streak to 22 straight with a 28-31 defeat of Laney College.

But the Invitational was by far the big meet of the week. And Steve Brooks of San Jose came up with the performance of the month. Brooks, undefeated this season, ran a blistering 20:51.2 for the 4.2-mile course. That's just 3 seconds off Jim Van Dine's course record of 20:48 set last year. Brooks came through the 2-mile mark at 9:52. He admitted easing up at the finish simply because there was no one behind him and he didn't realize he was close to the record.

The top Bulldog was Ed Barney. Barney, still improving this season, finished 14th in the 91-man field. Behind him was Rudy Snyders and Dana Carvey. Snyders grabbed 19th in 22:14 and Carvey took 28th in 23:33. Larry Dieu, who's been top man for the Dogs all season, had an off day finishing 34th in 22:44 with Don Pemberton on his heels with the same time.

In the small college division Cabrillo emerged with the win and the top man, Ben De La Garza, also ran a blistering race, finishing in 20:53. Local entrants Skyline and Cañada finished 4th and 11th, respectively.

The reserve race, won by Eric Moller of Marin, featured CSM's Bruce Sayre, who captured 3rd with a 23:27 effort.

Coach Bob Rush, who was responsible for the well-run affair, was happy with his team's performance. "San Jose showed they are in a class by themselves, but the rest of Northern California is very balanced. We still need a little work on our own course." They can use the work because both the Northern California and state championships will be held here.

Tomorrow the Dogs get a look at a few top Southern California teams, including state champ Grossmont, in the Hancock Invitational.

Harrier Ed Barney

CSM Harriers 3rd Without Van Dine

College of San Mateo's cross-country team ran well on its own course to place third among 14 large colleges in the CSM Invitational Saturday. San Jose CC took five of the first 17 places to easily sweep team honors with 41 points to 101 for West Valley and 130 for the Bulldogs.

Cabrillo edged Allan Hancock, 65-68, for small division honors with Skyline fourth with 83 points and Canada tenth with 249.

San Jose's Steve Brooks posted the best time of the day at 20:51:07, just missing Jim Van Dine's record of 20:48 on the four mile course set last year. Van Dine, sidelined with an injury this season, was a spectator Saturday.

Top Bulldog finishers were Ed Barney in 14th place and Rudy Snyders, 19ths.

Cabrillo's Ben De La Garza was the small division winner in 20:53.71 while Skyline's John McVeigh took fifth in 21:45—best clocking by a county runner. Mark Parsons was Canada's first finisher, in 36th place.

CSM third in its own harrier race

College of San Mateo utilized team depth to place third among 14 teams in the large division of the annual CSM Invitational cross country race, behind powerful Golden Gate Conference rival San Jose and West Valley, Saturday at Crystal Springs.

Cañada College didn't fare as well in the small school race, finishing 10th among 11 entries.

Former Carimont High runner Ed Barney's fifth place (in a field of 91) paced CSM. San Jose's Steve Brooks won in 20:51.7, missing the four-mile course record set last year by CSM's Jim Van Dine (currently injured) by nearly four seconds.

College of San Mateo's cross country team departed for Santa Maria this morning for tomorrow's Allan Hancock Invitational following the Bulldogs' 22nd straight Golden Gate Conference dual victory yesterday.

Host Chabot was CSM's latest victim, 25-36, in the league center meet in Newark. The Gladiators took the first two spots, led by Ted Quintana's course record 22:28, but San Mateo swept the next seven places, all runners within 37 seconds of one another, for an easy triumph.

Bulldog runners take 24th in row

NEWARK — College of San Mateo skipped past Chabot 25-36 yesterday on the losers' course for the Bulldogs' 24th consecutive Golden Gate Conference cross country victory. The title should be decided Nov. 2 when CSM hosts San Jose, also 2-0, at Crystal Springs.

Chabot took first and second, but CSM captured third through ninth, led by ex-Carlmont star Ed Barney.

Winner and CSM placers: Ted Quintana (C) 22:28; 3. Ed Barney 23:07; 4. Larry Dieu 23:10; 5. Dana Carvey 23:14; 6. Rudy Snyders 23:21; 7. Don Pemberton 23:38; 8. Crispin Roaque 23:44; 9. Ed Rios 23:48; 10. Bruce Soyre 24:05. (4.3 miles, 23 runners on Newark course).

Harriers skein cut, beaten by Vikings

The longest dual meet win streak in the history of Golden Gate Conference cross country ended last Friday.

Diablo Valley College convincingly beat CSM's harriers 23-34 on the Bulldog's own 4-mile collection of hills, curves and dust. The Dog's win streak, 24 straight, was in its fifth year when the Dogs lost one part of a three-way meet. City College of San Francisco, the unlucky third entrant, was shutout by both teams.

Two weeks ago, CSM, ranked among the top ten in the State, grabbed second place in the Hancock Invitational, losing only to highly ranked West Valley College by 15 points. Rudy Snyders was the top man for the Bulldogs, finishing fourth in 21:44. Behind him were Ed Barney and Ed Rios finishing 7th and 12th, respectively. Barney was timed in 21:57 and Rios in 22:10. Larry Dieu and Don Pemberton rounded out the strong effort placing 15th and 16th. Dieu was clocked in 22:18 with Pemberton two seconds back.

Balance is the Dogs' strength and this serves them much better in big meets than in small ones. This balance should carry them into the State meet but it did not serve them well against Diablo Valley. Ed Barney ran a race that could be described as all guts but he still was beaten by three Viking runners. In cross country scoring, if any team takes the top three spots the rest of the race is unimportant.

The Bulldog harriers must face powerful San Jose today as a prelude to the Nor Cals next weekend.

CMS X-Country Win Streak Ends

The end has finally come for that long College of San Mateo cross country streak.

After 22 straight victories over four seasons, the Bulldogs met their master yesterday in Diablo Valley, which scored a 23-34 victory on CSM's home Crystal Springs course in Belmont.

"They took one-two-three on us, as we were afraid they would," said CSM Coach Bob Rush, who is now very pessimistic about the chances for a fourth straight champtionship. DVC and CSM each have one loss — and a Bulldog victory over unbeaten San Jose CC in next week's league finale would cause a three-way title deadlock.

STATE TITLE A POSSIBILITY

Skyline vs. the Odds

By FRED BAER
Times Correspondent
Skyline College bids for its first state championship tomorrow and it could come right here in San Mateo County.

But the Trojans are definite underdogs in the California Junior College Association cross-country championships, which will be contested on the 4.2-mile Crystal Springs Course at 2595 Hallmark Dr., Belmont. Should there be excessive rain, the meet will be moved to the College of San Mateo campus.

Skyline was second in both the Northern California small division championships and the Coast Conference behind Cabrillo. Cabrillo is expected to be a strong challenger in the 11 a.m. race but three Southern California teams may fight it out for the crown—SouCal champ Moorpark, Palomar, and Citrus.

While Coast and NorCal champ Ben De La Garza of Cabrillo rates the favorite's role in the small division — and holds the Crystal Springs course record of 20:21.9 set two weeks ago — Grossmont's Terry Cotton is expected to lead Grossmont to its second straight large division title at noon.

San Jose CC could challenge if the Golden Gate

Conference champs can recover from various bugs which contributed to their letdown in the NorCal meet last week. San Joaquin Delta won that meet ahead of the Jaguars as state mile champ Alfonso Buenrostro of the Mustangs led the way and SJCC's Steve Brooks faltered to 15th.

Delta, Los Angeles Harbor and Fullerton are three of the most improved teams in the large division in recent weeks, and, along with Mt. San Antonio and El Camino have hopes of upsetting unbeaten Grossmont.

Although the meet is being run on College of San Mateo's home course and co-hosted by West Valley, both schools failed to qualify for the finals for the first time in several years. Meanwhile American River remains the only school to make the state meet every year.

Skyline's small division hopes ride with steady John McVeigh, third in both the Coast and NorCal meets, plus second team all-NorCal Bob McDaniel, Bob Schug, and Tony Fotinos. If Dave Dunbar and John Moreno can contribute high places, the Trojans title hopes will be greatly improved.

Santa Ana, which won the first two small division titles, in 1971-72, did not qualify this year. Grossmont won the overall title in 1965 too and hopes to equal Los Angeles Valley's record of three championships.

Fans wishing to watch both the 11 a.m. and noon races in Belmont should still have time to get to the CSM campus for the 1 p.m. football game too. And, if it rains, there'll be a triple-headed attraction right at the campus—at 11, 12 and 1.

Jaguars speed by harriers; Dogs in Nor Cal tomorrow

by Rick Kushman

At Crystal Springs last Friday, the wind seemed to rip right through anyone who dared brave the cold. And last Friday San Jose City College ripped right through CSM's harriers and blew them off the course.

With that performance, San Jose captured the Golden Gate Conference dual meet crown. Which means for the second time since taking over the cross country program, coach Bob Rush did not win a championship. But third place is nothing to sneer at.

This is not to sneeze at the Bulldog's effort Friday either. Ed Barnev, the Dog's top man, broke up a San Jose shutout by placing third in 21:38, his best time of the year. Dana Carvey, running his best race to date, was CSM's second man, finishing seventh overall with a personal record of 21:54.

As a matter of fact, almost the entire team ran personal bests or close to it. Rudy Snyders ran his second best time for the 4-mile course, 21:59. Ed Rios and Don Pemberton both came up with their top times, 22:03 and 22:06, respectively. Rios has produced a faster time for four miles but it was on a much easier course.

But that's not all. Jess Roat, Perry Fondacabe, Roger Fondacabe, Denny Gonzales, and Russ Fung all ran best personal records. Loren Lavezzoli tied his and Bruce Sayre missed his by one second.

This was a day littered with records. Steve Brooks, San Jose's num-

Nor Cals tomorrow, broke Jim Van Dine's course record by over nine seconds. Brooks hustled to a 20:39.2 after going halfway in 9:33. He wasn't the only one to break the record of 20:48.6 that had stood for almost a year. Ted Quintara of Chabot College produced a 20:48.6 in the following race.

But fate was not kind to Steve Brooks, who had been trying for the record all year. He was to hold it for only a scant 19 hours. The following day, in the Coast Conference finals, Ben De La Garza blistered to a fantastic 20:21.9, almost 18 seconds better than Brooks. De La Garza, who runs for Cabrillo College, is the top all-arounder in the small college ranks.

Tomorrow, the Northern California finals will be held at Crystal Springs. San Jose is clearly the top team, rated number two in the state. West Valley, Diablo Valley, CSM, and San Joaquin Delta look like the favorites to place in the top five, but Marin and American River have the potential to surprise someone.

JC Harriers Qualify For 'State' Saturday

By FRED BAER

College of San Mateo bids for its fourth straight state meet appearance and Skyline its first when the two local community colleges run the Northern California cross-country championships tomorrow at noon in Belmont.

Separate large and small division races will be contested over the 4.2 mile Crystal Springs course.

Top five teams and first 15 individual finishers in each division qualify for the state championships on the same course a week later.

Large division favorite is unbeaten San Jose CC, which is second-ranked in the state to defending California champ Grossmont and replaced CSM as Golden Gate Conference champ this season. San Mateo shares tenth with College of Marin in the current rating and Bulldog coach Bob Rush expects a tough time in qualifying for the state finals.

Cabrillo, only team to defeat Skyline during the Coast Conference season, is favored over the Trojans in the small division.

Dogs seventh in Nor Cal; San Joaquin upset victor

by Rick Kushman

The rain that pelted the CSM cross-country course just added to the Bulldogs' misery last Saturday. They took 7th in the Nor-Cal finals and for the first time in four years they will not be competing in the State meet.

The Nor-Cals were simply a collection of upsets. San Joaquin Delta walked away the overall champs, upsetting pre-race favorite San Jose. Steve Brooks, the individual favorite, bowed to San Joaquin's Alfonso Buenrostro and 13 others as he finished an unexpected 15th, far behind Buenrostro's winning time of 19:33 for the 4-mile course.

The Dogs' top man was Ed Barney, who finished 17 in 20:43. Barney, like the team as a whole, missed the state by two places (top 15 runners and top five teams qualify). His performance earned him 6th on the All-GCC team. Rudy Snyders, who finished 25th in 20:38, earned the 10th and final spot on the all-conference team. Other CSM finishers were Ed Rios, (35th in 21:09), Don Pemberton (52nd in 21:35), Chris Roaque (54th in 21:37) Larry Dieu (61st in 21:42), and Dana Carvey (79th in 22:19).

The top five teams were San Joaquin Delta, San José, American River, Diablo Valley, and Marin. The rain was a probable reason for the surprises and the outlook for the State meet tomorrow is poor. If the ground is wet, it will be run on campus; if not Crystal Springs will be the site.

CSM doesn't make state harrier finals

Although running on its own course, College of San Mateo's cross country team failed to earn a state meet berth for the first time in four years in the NorCal finals Saturday.

The Bulldogs (181) took seventh behind victor San Joaquin Delta (84) in the meet switched from Crystal Springs to the asphalt, four-mile course at CSM after rain and Friday's heavy prep activity left Crystal in disarray. The top five teams go to the state meet next Saturday at Crystal.

Soph Ed Barney from Carmont High finished 17th in 20:43, while Rudy Snyders from Half Moon Bay was 25th in 20:56 to lead CSM.

In the small college division, Cañada (289) placed 11th behind winner Cabrillo (55) despite Bob Cooper's 25th place finish in 20:28.

JC Showdown Due Saturday

By FRED BAER
Times Correspondent

The state cross-country championship will be run without College of San Mateo for the first time in four years while Skyline makes its initial appearance in the title meet.

That's the ironic turn of events as CSM prepares to host the California Junior College Association showdown Saturday at the Crystal Springs course in Belmont.

Because of the weekend rain, the Northern California championships Saturday were moved to an all-road course around the CSM campus. That didn't seem to bother the small division runners as Skyline chased Cabrillo to the wire in a repeat of the previous week's Coast Conference championships, 56-67, with Cosumnes River back in third place with 91 points.

But San Joaquin Delta stunned heavy favorite San Jose CC in the large division, 84-95, as individual pick Steve Brooks of San Jose finished only 15th. State JC mile champ Al Buenrostro of Delta won the four-mile race in 19:33.

San Mateo placed seventh with 181 points as only the top five teams in each division qualified for the state finals. Camino Norte champ West Valley also ran out of the money, just ahead of the Bulldogs in sixth place. And West Valley is co-hosting the state meet with CSM.

It climaxed a season of frustration for CSM coach Bob Rush, who saw his defending NorCal champ Jim Van Dine sidelined all season with an injury and then a four-season league dual meet string ended.

Rush had spent countless hours developing one of the finest courses in the state at Crystal Springs and bringing top meets to the county. But for a second year in a row rains have washed out the course, causing the NorCal championships to be moved to the campus.

CSM's highest finisher Saturday was Ed Barney in 17th place. But only 15 individuals qualified for the state meet. Barney did rate a t-third team All-NorCal
