Leigh Makes Sweep At Aptos Invitational

Leigh High of San Jose made a clean sweep of things at Saturday's fourth annual Aptos Invitational on the 2.6 mile hilly course at Aptos High.

Leigh not only captured the varsity championship but also won the frosh-soph, junior varsity and freshmen titles.

In the small school division, St. Francis garnered top honors while Aptos claimed the frosh-soph championship. St. Francis topped the field in the junior varsity race and the Lancers aced the freshmen title as well.

Defending Central Coast Section cross country champion Watsonville finished second to Leigh with Overfelt, San Carlos, Soquel, Woodside, Homestead, Mt. Pleasant, Camden and Salinas finishing in that order.

San Carlos' Mitch Kingery covered the 2.6 mile course in 12:45 with Leigh having second, third and fourth place times. Watsonville's Dave DeLaGarza was fourth, timed in 13:30.

Gary McConnell of Soquel was 10th in 13:49.

Aptos' Ruben Gonzalez was clocked in 14:46 for second behind Ken McBride from Half Moon Bay in the small school frosh-soph race.

Other local finishers included

Chris Bolerice (Aptos), sixth; David Allen (Harbor) eighth and Glen Daniels (Harbor), ninth.

A total of 29 schools were on hand making the Invitational the biggest ever. Some 542 runners participated in the morning-afternoon meet.
