Bellarmino Prep claimed its ninth straight West Catholic Athletic League cross country title Tuesday, outrunning St. Francis at the 2.9-mile Crystal Springs course in Belmont.

Bellarmino's Peter Fisher won the race in 15:47, followed by teammates Steve Mills and Dan Zoldak.

That finish helped Bellarmine edge St. Francis, 24-47. Serra finished third with 58 points.

Will Clark and Nick Seewer led St. Francis by finishing sixth and seventh, respectively. No WCAL team other than Bellarmine has won a WCAL title since St. Francis did it in 1979.

In a Girls Private School League meet at Crystal Springs, Notre Dame-Belmont captured its fourth straight GPSL title.

Notre Dame had seven of the top 10 finishers to beat Castilleja, 17-54. Menlo School was incomplete.

Notre Dame's Suzanne Haas won the race with a school-record 20:02, followed by teammates Blake Grenier, Eve Ipsen and Tiffany Inorante.

Ann Donohue led Castilleja with a fifth-place finish.

In a Bay Area Conference meet, Crystal-Springs Uplands scored a victory on its home course.

Bert and Alan Laubsch finished second and third (in 15:52 and 16:33), respectively, for Crystal Springs-Uplands.
