

Acknowledgments & Recognition (cont'd)

Rick Fambrini	former coach, Serra High School former course meet director and head of permanent finish chute and drinking fountain construction
Ed Fonseca	former superintendant, Peninsula Division, San Francisco Water Department (course landlord) authorized use of land for course construction
Rich Harris	former coach, College of San Mateo former course timer and head of officials' shed construction
Bill Hotchkiss	former coach, Aptos High School and Leigh High School
Forrest Jameison	former coach, Palo Alto High School originator, Center Meets and Postal cross-country meets "father" of high school cross country in San Francisco Bay Area
Dave Kiefer	sports journalist, Santa Cruz Sentinel former sports journalist, San Jose Mercury News
Walt Lange	coach, Jesuit High School
Loren Lansberry	former coach, Carlmont High School former course co-architect and meet director
Jack Leydig	former course assistant and meet coordinator former course meet director, 1974 AAU Men's National Championships
Jim Luttrell	former coach, Woodside High School and San Carlos High School former course meet director
Rudy (Wally) Montanegro	coach, Leland High School former coach, Gunderson High School
Ed Parker	former coach, Millbrae Lions Track Club former course meet director, 1975 AAU Women's National Championships
Bob Rush	former coach, College of San Mateo and San Mateo High School former course co-architect and manager current course manager, custodian, and head timer "father" of Crystal Springs
Dave Shrock	former coach, College of San Mateo and Stanford University former course meet director former course coordinator of measurement, markers, and signage

Acknowledgments & Recognition (cont'd)

Verne Thornburg	former coach, Homestead High School and Lynbrook High School former course meet director
Tom Tuite	former coach, St. Francis (Mountain View) High School
Len Wallach	former sports journalist, San Mateo Times
Terry Ward	coach, Bellarmine (San Jose) High School former coach, St. Ignatius (San Francisco) High School
West Coast Conference	office headquarters personnel, San Francisco
Howard Willman	sports journalist/statistician, Track & Field News former sports journalist/statistician, San Jose Mercury News author, "CCS Cross Country Guide", August 31, 1982
Mark Winitz	free-lance running journalist long-distance running chairman, PA/USATF former publisher/editor, RunCal journal
Plato Yanicks	sports historian and collector former coach, Alameda High School and Hillsdale High School former coach, Menlo-Atherton High School former course meet director

California Track & Running News
Joe Henderson's Running Commentary
Nor-Cal Running Review (no longer published)
Pacific Runner
Palo Alto Times (no longer published)
Peninsula Times Tribune (no longer published)
Redwood City Tribune
RunCal (no longer published)
Runner's World
San Jose Mercury News
San Mateo Times
Track & Field News
Women's Track and Field World (no longer published)

most importantly:

the hundreds of thousands of athletes who have created Crystal Springs history, and those who will create its future